The University of Sydney

Social program

Once you arrive at the University of Sydney, the Sydney Abroad team are here to answer your questions and welcome you to our campus community. We offer a wide range of services to help you make the most of your time here and develop skills and strategies to enjoy university life to the fullest. Here are just a few of the ways we can support your health, wellbeing and academic journey.

Welcome Week
Welcome Week is an action-packed opportunity to dive into the social and academic experiences of campus life. It’s a great opportunity to make friends, attend welcome events, and enjoy a variety of entertainment. The Sydney Abroad Welcome starts with Intro to Sydney sessions two weeks prior to the start of semester. The official Welcome and enrolment advising events take place during the week before classes begin.

− sydney.edu.au/orientation

Mates Abroad
Each semester, hundreds of study abroad students are paired with like-minded, enthusiastic local student mentors to ease their transition to Sydney life, create new friendships, and embark on exciting adventures together. Every study abroad student is invited to participate in this program, via email, at the beginning of their semester abroad.

− facebook.com/groups/matesabroad/

Socials
Coordinating with the Global Exchange Society, we run social events such as a Sydney harbour cruise, breakfast with koalas, a day at Taronga Zoo, Aussie football game, surf camp, city tours, BBQs and more. The USU also runs a Welcome Week Festival before each semester (the largest event of its kind in Australia).

Our researchers and teachers

The passion and brilliance of our academics ensure we remain one of the world’s top research universities.

As a member of Australia’s prestigious Group of Eight network, we are among the best universities in the world. You’ll have the opportunity to learn from our inspiring academics who pursue research excellence with the latest innovative technology. It is due to the outstanding calibre of their work that we continue to rank among the top teaching and research universities in the world. Our teachers are leaders in their field and offer progressive curriculum that is consistently fuelled by new research.

What sets the University of Sydney apart?
Exceptional facilities, an innovative edge and the drive to challenge traditional ways of thinking. Our students have the opportunity to be part of this: contributing to research that pushes the boundaries and makes a meaningful, real-world impact.

“My year abroad at the University of Sydney was easily the best year of my life. I have met some incredible people in this time from all over the world, who I know I will be friends with for life. The year has really changed me as a person, and enabled me to grow into an independent happy young woman! My experience at university was the best year of my life. I have met some incredible people, and enabled me to excel in my work. At no point have I regretted my decision to come here and I will definitely be telling everyone about it for the rest of my life!”

Sally Holcombe
University of Exeter, UK

“I work with study abroad students, introducing them to the benefits of experiential learning through unique field trips into some of Australia’s World Heritage listed National Parks. Through this work, I have developed a strong passion for creating transformative learning experiences in wilderness settings, and helping my students to maximise their learning to benefit their future profession and personal life.”

Dr Wayne Cotton
Associate Dean, Teacher Education, School of Education and Social Work

“Tasmanian devils are endangered due to a contagious cancer, a tumour that is passed from animal to animal when they bite each other. My team and I in the School of Life and Environmental Sciences work on the genetics of Tasmanian devils and their tumours. Our research has shown how the tumour is able to evade the immune system and we are introducing new genetic diversity into wild devil populations.”

Professor Katherine Belov
Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Global Engagement) Professor of Comparative Genetics

How to search for a unit of study

We have more than 2500 units of study available to Study Abroad and Exchange students.

We’ve made the search easier for you by creating units of study (subject) lists to help you find subjects. From discipline specific to thematic lists, you can easily navigate our units of study, using this handy tool.

Step 1
You can use our unit tools to find your desired options:

- sydney.edu.au/study-abroad-units

Step 2
Select your preferred list: Master, Thematic or Department. This will take you to a current unit list.

Step 3
Where a unit name peaks your interest, follow the link for more information, and it will take you to the unit’s course information page.

“A study in the University of Sydney is an amazing opportunity. Not only do you get the chance to meet lots of new people, but you also the chance to study really interesting modules that you cannot study anywhere else. Sydney is an amazing city and there is so much to do!”

Caitlin Thomson
University of Nottingham, UK
Semester programs

We have many options available for both undergraduate and postgraduate students wishing to study at Sydney. Students coming for semester 1 or 2 need to enrol in a full time load of 24 credit points.

Study Abroad

Every year, we welcome hundreds of students who participate in one of our study abroad programs. Some come for our academic reputation and wide range of courses, while others come to experience our vibrant student life bolstered by our guaranteed accommodation and unique Internship program. Students can come for 1 or 2 semesters and tuition fees apply.

Exchange

We have exchange programs with more than 250 partner universities in over 40 countries. If you’re enrolled at one of our international partner universities, you may be eligible to apply for exchange. When you come as an exchange student, your tuition fees are paid to your home university while you study at Sydney.

If your home university has a partnership with us, you first need to apply to your home university’s international exchange program.

You will need to be nominated by your home university before applying to the University of Sydney. Once your nomination is confirmed, we welcome you to follow the steps on how to apply.

Consult our Global Mobility Database to find out if your home university is one of our exchange partners.

Special programs

Short term

Each unit of study is taught in an intensive format while maintaining credit point values and academic integrity. Most unit of study options are taught alongside full-degree students and provide hands-on experiential learning in an Australian cultural context. Students can enrol in either 1 or 2 units of study.

Short term fees*
1 unit of study $3075 AUD
2 units of study $6150 AUD

*Indicative rate for 2021, official rates will be published online.

Gap and first year students

For those just finishing secondary school or in their first year of university study, this program is an excellent way to earn credit at the University of Sydney. With over 180 semester-long units of study with no pre-requisites or assumed knowledge, you’re spoilt for choice. Gap and first year applicants are assessed on their secondary qualification and need to meet our English language entry requirements.

- sydney.edu.au/inbound-programs-gap-first-year

Spring friendly semester

This program aligns with the northern hemisphere Spring semester, allowing students to study a full semester worth of credit and return home in time for summer internships. Spring friendly students choose 1 unit of study from our Summer session (Jan or Feb) and 3 units from Semester 1.

Study Abroad and Exchange Guide
Internships

Combining your study abroad experience with an international internship can help you stand out in a competitive job market.

Complement your academic study with relevant industry or research experience via our internship program. Interns complete a minimum of 120 hours in an industry or research placement with one of our many partners or academics. The Internship unit of study is worth 6 credit points, and is taken alongside your other units of study.

Placement is competitive and based on key performance indicators such as GPA, prior academic studies, as well as the interests of the applicant and host. Though every effort is made to place all eligible applicants, placement is not guaranteed.

For more information on types of internships, eligibility and how to apply, please visit our website.

“I loved USYD. It was an amazing semester that helped me grow personally and professionally. I highly recommend doing an Interdisciplinary Project or Internship.”

“Meeting people from all around the world in a beautiful country and city. The best class I took was one of the electives (Outdoor Education) and it was an amazing experience! Being able to go on a field trip to the Royal National Park and camp in the Blue Mountains for a class was an opportunity I’ve never had before and I was actually sad when the class was over. Our instructor was also an incredibly kind and passionate teacher, which made the experience even better.”

Zoe Martin
University of Toronto, Canada
Eligibility

Before you apply, please make sure that you understand our eligibility criteria.

- Nomination from your home university if they are an exchange partner of the University of Sydney
- You need to have achieved a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 point scale, or an average grade of ‘C’ or better on the European ECTS grading scale (or equivalent)
- Meet the English entry requirements as outlined on the website.

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

Health insurance is compulsory for most international students who are studying in Australia. It is a condition of your student visa that you maintain Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the duration of your studies in Australia. This cover needs to be arranged before you can apply for your student visa.

For more information on how to arrange your health cover, visit the website.

- sydney.edu.au/study/oshc

How to apply

Step 1: Check if your home university has a partnership with the University of Sydney
If they do, you need to contact your home university. They will then contact us to nominate you.
- sydney.edu.au/study/overseas-programs

Step 2: Search Study Abroad or Exchange, and find your course
Your course will differ depending upon your nomination, program (Study Abroad or Exchange), level of study (undergraduate or postgraduate), and duration (one or two semesters). For Short term programs, please use the Undergraduate Study Abroad Program (One Semester) course:
- sydney.edu.au/courses

Step 3: Access your online application
Click Apply on the course page to start your application. You can save and return to it later.

Step 4: Submit your application
You should include:
- Your current transcript
- Evidence you have met our English entry requirements
- Evidence of Identity
- Your unit of study preferences

Step 5: Your offer letter
Your application will be assessed and if successful, you will receive your offer letter via email.

Step 6: Accept your offer, and if applicable, pay your tuition and OSHC
Log in to your Sydney Student and respond to your offer. If applicable, you need to pay your tuition, deposit and/or overseas student health cover (OSHC).

Step 7: Receive your Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE)
You need your CoE for your visa application.

Step 8: Confirm your visa and start planning your travel to Sydney!
Ensure you arrive before Orientation.
Accommodation

Choosing where to live will be one of the biggest decisions you’ll make after deciding to study in Australia. We provide peace of mind in finding a place to live by offering our students guaranteed accommodation in student accommodation buildings within a 15 minute walk to campus and located on the doorstep of downtown Sydney.

We have negotiated a special 20-week contract rate and length for Study Abroad and Exchange students at most of our preferred properties. Contracts start the week before Orientation and finish the week after the final exam period, meaning students don’t pay for additional weeks they won’t use. Your study abroad adviser will provide more information on how to apply for guaranteed accommodation once you accept your offer.

There are a number of accommodation options as part of our guaranteed offer to study abroad and exchange students, including:
- University residences
- residential colleges
- independently-run student housing

Our Accommodation Services website is a great place to get started. You will find helpful advice on where to live, costs, and other accommodation information.

Internships

Complement your academic study with relevant industry or research experience. Interns complete a minimum 120 hours in an industry or research placement with one of our many partners or academics. The Internship unit of study is worth 6 credit points, and taken alongside your other units of study.

There are four intakes:
- Semester 1: February-June (13 weeks)
- Short Term: June-July (6 weeks)
- Semester 2: August-November (13 weeks)

Parallel to your work placement are five professional development workshops, academic readings and a range of assessments, including a final project report.

Placement is competitive and based on key performance indicators such as GPA, prior academic studies and goals, as well as the interests of the applicant and host. Though every effort is made to place all eligible applicants, placement is not guaranteed.

For more information on types of internships, eligibility and how to apply, please visit our website.

"When reflecting on whether or not I think it was worth it to do the internship while here in Sydney, I believe I made the 100% correct decision. Although it did take away some of my time at the beach and it was a lot of work. It really did benefit me more than any other class would have at Uni. I would definitely recommend to anyone to do an internship when coming to Sydney."

“Sydney is absolutely amazing. The people are great, the nature and places are great. When the weather starts to warm up, I cannot think of a better place to be. I strongly recommend it to everyone considering going on exchange!”

Mari Šenstad
University of Bergen, Norway

“Studying at University of Sydney has been a once in a lifetime experience. The academia was rigorous and engaging, and provided me with a broader scope of knowledge and experience. From the first day, the University of Sydney staff and faculty made this campus feel open and comfortable, making me feel less anxious about being far from home. I’ve had countless incredible experiences here with the friends I’ve made, and will remember my time here with so much joy and nostalgia. I’ll never be ready to leave, and I’ll always be ready to return.”

Amanda Davis
UNC Chapel Hill, USA

“I had the chance to meet some of the most inspiring and creative lecturers ever. Besides their outstanding standard of studies, the University offers unbelievable social life for students. You can attend numerous events each week and you won’t be able to cross the campus without bumping into new opportunities to enrich your experience. There’s no other place like the University of Sydney!”

Zsofia Keszthelyi
Corvinus University of Budapest, Hungary

“Excellent education, beautiful destination and an experience of a lifetime! My time at the University of Sydney has given me friends, memories and stories that I’ll bring back with me to Groningen.”
