1 General Information

About UCD
University College Dublin is one of Ireland’s largest and most richly diversified universities. It provides a broad range of courses grouped into six Colleges (College of Arts & Humanities, College of Business, College of Engineering & Architecture, College of Health & Agricultural Sciences, College of Social Sciences & Law, College of Science).

UCD traces its origins to the Catholic University of Ireland founded in 1854 by Cardinal John Henry Newman, author of the celebrated ‘The Idea of a University’.

Today UCD is a vibrant, modern university of over 32,000 students situated on a spacious and leafy campus some 5km to the south of Dublin city centre.

Further information on UCD is available at: www.ucd.ie

About Dublin
Located on the east coast of Ireland, Dublin began as a Viking settlement founded over one thousand years ago. In the 21st century, with a population of over one million people, Dublin is the thriving capital of the Republic of Ireland and is the centre of the political, diplomatic, administrative and commercial life of the country. Famous for its literary tradition, Ireland’s capital has been home to writers from Jonathan Swift to William Butler Yeats and James Joyce. A visit to Dublin allows you to explore both the historical and the modern, from castles and churches to cafés and clubs.

4 Course Information

Credit System and Course Load

UCD uses the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS). A full course load is 30 credits per semester. At undergraduate level most modules are worth 5 credits and students take six modules per semester.

Exchange students may take fewer modules if permitted by their home institution. Students from outside of Europe must take a minimum of 20 ECTS in order to meet their visa/residency requirements.

Module Selection and Registration

A list of modules offered in UCD is available at: http://www.ucd.ie/students/course_search.htm

Restrictions apply in some subject areas:
- Health
- Agricultural Sciences
- Education
- Psychology
- Business
- Law
- English Literature
- History
- Masters level classes

Students will be sent information about course selection before they arrive. Students have a two-week period to add or drop modules from the first day of classes.

Results of Examinations

Examination results are released online to all students and they are notified by email regarding the date they will be available. All students may access their Statement of Results online and download a copy to forward to their home institution.

Language of instruction

All modules at UCD are taught in English – incoming students are advised to have a minimum level of B1 (CEFR).

Erasmus students are not required to provide proof of English language proficiency as part of their application.

Students coming from non-English speaking universities outside of Europe will need to show proof of English language proficiency. e.g. IELTS 6.5. Please see: http://www.ucd.ie/registry/admissions/elr.html

Grading system

Full information on the UCD grading system is available at: https://www.ucd.ie/students/exams/gradingandremediation/understandinggrades/

Language courses

Students can take English as a Foreign Language modules (worth 5 credits) each semester. These modules may be taken for credit only, attendance for audit is not permitted.

UCD Supports

Students with additional needs should inform their International Office contact and they will assist with your transition to UCD by contacting the relevant supports on campus. Please see: http://www.ucd.ie/all/
5 Immigration Requirements

Student Visa
Please be aware that students with citizenship of certain countries (including the US or Australia) do not require a student visa to enter Ireland but must register with the Irish Naturalisation and Immigration Service (INIS) after arrival in Dublin.
To find out whether or not you need a student visa, please consult:
https://www.irishimmigration.ie/visa-non-visa-required-nationalities/

Information on registration with INIS is available on http://www.ucd.ie/global/study-at-ucd/visasandimmigration/and will be further explained at Orientation.

Students who need a student visa must contact their local Irish embassy for information about the visa application process.

Important:
Visas valid for the Schengen countries are NOT valid for Ireland.

Incoming students should email incoming.exchanges@ucd.ie / incoming.erasmus@ucd.ie to request supporting documentation.

Work
Exchange students from outside Europe cannot seek employment in Ireland. EU/EEA students are entitled to work in Ireland without a work permit. EU/EEA students can seek casual employment meaning they can work for 20 hours per week during term time or full-time (up to 40 hours) during June, July, August and September, and also from 15th December to 15th January inclusive.

Transportation from airport to UCD
Aircoach, a private bus service, operates a regular service from Dublin Airport to UCD. Advance booking is available online, along with further information at www.aircoach.ie

Insurance
EU students should have an EHIC card. All students from outside of Europe are required to have health insurance in order to register with INIS. Please see http://www.ucd.ie/global/study-at-ucd/visasandimmigration/ for more information.
