General information about the Swedish Law Programme

The law programme of four-and-a-half years leading to the Swedish Master of Laws Degree LL.M. (in Swedish: Juristexamen) is the standard law programme in Sweden. The Law Programme is mainly taught in Swedish. The degree is required for professions such as that of a judge, attorney at law and prosecutor.

The standard law programme consists of compulsory courses taught over a period of six and a half terms. In their fourth year, students can choose from app. 60 specialized courses. Approximately 20-25 of these specialized courses are given in English and open to both foreign exchange and Swedish law students. Foreign exchange students who are proficient in Swedish may also apply to attend the courses taught in Swedish. Almost every course ends with a written examination. Please know that these courses are on an advanced level and your students will preferrably have at least two and a half year of fulltime studies within law before joining us.

Course information

Course catalogue  Academic year 2019/2020. This list might be subject to change. Law students need to have studied at least 120 credits in law in order to gain access to our advanced law courses. 120 credits equals full time studies for two years. Please know that students who join us during the first semester of their third year might struggle with a knowledge gap if they have no previous studies in the particular area of law that they choose to study here in Stockholm.

Swedish language course  Swedish language courses on different levels are offered for free by the Department of Swedish Language and Multilingualism to all incoming exchange students. More information about language courses are given on Orientation Day.

Transcript of record  Students can issue an official transcript of records through our student portal. This comes with a verification code (bottom of the page). If you require a hard copy, please state so in the nomination online form.
