Profile

As one of the largest universities in Sweden, with over 33,000 undergraduate and master’s students, Stockholm University offers unprecedented access to teaching and research facilities. Stockholm University, located in Sweden’s capital city, is the region’s center for higher education and research in humanities, law, the natural and social sciences, with a focus on the work of leading international researchers. In the heart of Sweden’s only national urban park, the university is surrounded by natural beauty, whilst being only a few minutes journey from the city center.
General information

Academic calendar

Autumn semester 2020: 31 August 2020 - 17 January 2021
Spring semester 2021: 18 January 2021 - 5 June 2021
Examinations are arranged throughout the year with no fixed examination periods. Each course ends with an examination which can be of various types. Break over Christmas depends on each specific course schedule.

Language of instruction

Swedish and English

Full time study load

30 credits (ECTS). Courses are normally worth 15 credits. Students can choose two 15-credit courses each semester. One week of full-time studies equals 1.5 credits. The workload is 40 hours per week, including lectures, reading assignments, seminars and independent studies.

General information about the Swedish Law Programme

The law programme of 4.5 years leading to the Swedish Master of Laws Degree LL.M. (in Swedish: Juristexamen) is the standard law programme in Sweden. The Law Programme is mainly taught in Swedish. The degree is required for professions such as that of a judge, attorney at law and prosecutor.

The standard law programme consists of compulsory courses taught over a period of 7 semesters. After this, in their fourth year, students can choose from app. 60 specialized courses. Approximately 20-25 of these specialized courses are given in English and open to both foreign exchange and Swedish law students. Foreign exchange students who are proficient in Swedish may also apply to attend the courses taught in Swedish. Almost every course ends with a written examination.

Application information – Semester/Full Year Exchange programme

Nomination deadline

For autumn semester 2020 - 30 April 2020
Nominations will be sent in from partner university coordinators via an online form. The link will be sent out to all partners in February 2020.

Application

All students must officially be nominated by their home university to be eligible for an exchange at the Department of Law. After the nomination is received, the students will be given access to the application.

Application deadlines

For autumn semester 2020 – 10 May 2020.
For spring semester 2021 – 10 October 2020.

Application material required

In two steps, first: Online form and the most recent copy of Transcript of records in English, and later Course selection form.

Academic requirements

All our courses are on an advanced level. Your students are therefore required to have studied at least 120 credits in law (i.e. 2 years of fulltime studies) in order to to take our courses. Please know that students who join us during the 1st semester of their 3rd year might struggle with a knowledge gap if they have no previous studies in the particular area of law that they choose to study here in Stockholm. While we only require 120 ECTS, your students will preferrably have at least 2,5 of fulltime studies within law before joining us.

Language requirements

Students whose mother tongue is not English are recommended to have at least a level of B2-C1, or equivalent of an overall IELTS score of 6.5 or an overall TOEFL score of 575 (paper-based/100 internet-based). We do not need to see the test results but ask all our partners to make sure their students have this level before nominating them to us.
