Information for Incoming Exchange Students
2023-2024
Among the nation’s TOP RANKED public universities, according to U.S. News & World Report, the University of Connecticut (UConn) enrolls over 18,000 undergraduate students at its main campus. Exchange students study at the main campus in Storrs, which offers state-of-the-art research, living, and recreational facilities in the heart of New England. Campus life includes a vibrant student union facility, a host of volunteer opportunities, and over 700 social, sport, hobby, travel, and religious clubs.

Incoming exchange students are also eligible to apply for work on campus. UConn Storrs is located in the rolling hills of northeastern Connecticut, 3 hours from New York, 1.5 hours from Boston, and 1 hour from Providence, Rhode Island. Hartford, the capital of Connecticut, is only 30 minutes from the campus and offers numerous cultural, athletic, and social attractions.

Accommodations

Most UConn students live on-campus. On-campus housing is guaranteed for all exchange students that complete the online housing application by the due date. Students will have access to the online housing application after they have been formally accepted to the exchange program. Housing assignments will be made by Residential Life prior to the start of the semester. Single rooms are limited and most students have a roommate.

For more information: reslife.uconn.edu

Note: While Residential Life will make efforts to guarantee all incoming exchange students who meet application deadlines, adjustments may have to be made for on-campus housing based on the evolving COVID pandemic. Please continue to monitor. reslife.uconn.edu for any updates on Fall 2023 housing.

Arrival to Campus

Students are encouraged to fly into an airport in the New York City or Boston areas. Bus transportation is available from New York City and Boston to UConn’s campus in Storrs. Students may also arrive via Bradley International Airport (in the Hartford, CT area) and take a taxi to campus.

For more information: isss.uconn.edu/study-requirements

Medical Insurance

It is mandatory for all exchange students to have personal medical insurance that meets all J-1 visa requirements. All exchange students are able to purchase UConn Health Insurance that meets all stated J-1 visa requirements: isss.uconn.edu/medical-insurance

Visa Requirements

Accepted exchange students will receive a DS-2019 form from UConn. This is needed to obtain your J-1 visa from the US Consulate/Embassy. Students must submit proof of sufficient funds for their term of study.

For more information: isss.uconn.edu/study-requirements

Late Arrival Policy

Due to UConn’s policy regarding mandatory orientation, late arrivals are not permitted except for unforeseen circumstance (e.g. weather, flight cancellation). All incoming exchange students are required to participate on orientation, which starts the day after the arrival day.

Employment

International students on J-1 visas may only work on or off campus within the employment rules authorized by your visa.

On Campus

Working on campus is a great way to meet other UConn students, learn about U.S. culture, practice your English and earn a little money. Examples of on-campus employment may include working in the library, the dining halls, or as a teaching or research assistant for an academic department.

For more information, please visit s.uconn.edu/on-campus-employment

Off Campus

Known as academic training, international students on J-1 visas may be approved to apply knowledge and skills learned at school to a practical work experience off campus. It includes employment training, internships, or work related to your field of study.
