Join our Tuākana community

Tuākana is a University-wide learning community that enhances the academic success of our Māori and Pacific students. Most of the University’s Māori and Pacific students engage with Tuākana. The faculties have dedicated staff and meeting spaces to support our Māori and Pacific students, and they develop their own programmes to complement the teaching and learning environment. Tuākana offers small-group learning, whakawhanaungatanga, wānanga, face-to-face meetings and workshops. These help connect Māori and Pacific students with senior Māori and Pacific students (tuākana), academic teaching staff, and key people across the University. The Equity Office – Te Ara Tautika

Our University is committed to being safe, inclusive and equitable. “Equity” means fairness. Fairness benefits everyone. The University’s commitment to equity helps us attract and value a strong community that reflects the diversity and talents of New Zealand’s population. Respected students and staff can achieve amazing results and make valuable contributions nationally and internationally. The Equity Office – Te Ara Tautika leads the University of Auckland’s commitment to equitable access for everyone who has the potential to succeed at our world-ranked University.

What is a safe, inclusive and equitable University? A place where:

• We value all our students and staff.
• We respect differences.
• We celebrate our diverse communities.
• Our campuses are accessible.
• We take concerns about the study and work environment seriously.
• It’s OK to ask for help and support.
• It’s safe to disclose issues that may affect study or work.
• There’s zero tolerance for discrimination.

Zero Tolerance for Discrimination
www.equity.auckland.ac.nz/zerotolerance

Family Violence: It’s Not OK
www.equity.auckland.ac.nz/itsnotok

What does the Equity Office do for our students?

• Provides advice to students, their families and whānau on course and degree options.
• Leads the Māori and Pacific Welcome.
• Provides advice, guidance and advocacy.
• Offers Māori and Pacific scholarship assistance including information on study options, ancestry guidelines and fees.
• Links students with other key support networks across the University.
• Works with secondary schools to provide information about studying at the University.
• Works with whānau, community groups and churches to provide information about studying at the University.

Our team supports the outreach, recruitment, retention and success of Māori and equity group students. These include Pacific students, students with disabilities, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender and Intersex (LGBTI) students, students from low socio-economic and from refugee backgrounds, and women and men in those disciplines in which they are currently under-represented. Student Disability Services
Student Disability Services provides support for students with a wide range of impairments, both visible and invisible. If you live with an impairment that impacts your studies, or if you had special conditions for exams at school, contact us for a confidential chat about the ways that we may be able to help you succeed at our University. For more information about the services we offer visit www.disability.auckland.ac.nz or email SDS Manager Brian Barney disability@auckland.ac.nz
Studying with us is your first step

A university qualification can help give you more job options, a higher salary and more opportunities to work and live anywhere in the world.

How do I get accepted to the University of Auckland?

To study at the University of Auckland you must have a university entrance qualification and be selected into a programme.

To increase your chances of being accepted, in Year 11 you should:
1. Take the right subjects at secondary school. These subjects must be selected from the approved NZQA list. For information visit www.nzqa.govt.nz
2. Wherever possible, take Achievement Standards rather than Unit Standards (the more Achievement Standards you have, the better).
3. Aim for Excellence (4 points) and Merit (3 points) rather than Achieved (2 points).
4. Make sure you meet the University Entrance Standard (see below).

We offer:
- Hundreds of career options.
- More than 50 undergraduate programmes from certificate to bachelor level.
- 155 subjects across arts, business and economics, creative arts and industries, education, social work, engineering, law, medicine and science.
- More than 30 conjoint degree programmes.
- Opportunities tailored for Māori students.
- More than 30 conjoint degree programmes.

For more information visit www.auckland.ac.nz/study-options

The basics

Why is it important to choose the right subjects in Year 11?

Some University of Auckland programmes require you to have taken specific subjects and gained minimum credits in certain subjects. Some programmes have other requirements such as a portfolio, audition and/or interview. For example:

- To gain entry into a Bachelor of Education degree you will need an NCEA rank score of 250 with a minimum of 18 credits in one subject from Table A and a minimum of 18 credits in one subject from Table B (see table right).

Academic English Language Requirement (AELR)

In 2016, the University introduced an Academic English Language Requirement (AELR) into all its bachelors degree programmes. The aim of the AELR is to ensure you have a sufficient level of competence in academic English to support your study at University.

The Requirement will not affect whether you are offered a place in a programme.

The Requirement may be met on entry (depending on how you have gained University Entrance eg, through NCEA) or it can be met through the completion of an approved course in your first 12 months of study.

You must meet the AELR if you are admitted to a University of Auckland bachelors degree programme and you are a domestic student, or an international student applying on the basis of a New Zealand secondary school qualification, or an international student applying on the basis of results at another New Zealand tertiary institution.

Applicants who have not met the AELR through their entrance qualification will be provided with advice at the time of enrolment. For further information visit www.auckland.ac.nz/aelr

*Does not apply to applicants who meet the University Entrance Literacy Standard in Te Reo Māori.

The University Entrance Standard for NCEA Level 3

You will be qualified for entrance to New Zealand universities in 2018 if you have obtained:

| Level 1 | Total Literacy credits level 1 or higher made up of University Entrance Literacy Standard in Te Reo Māori |
| Level 2 | Total Literacy credits level 2 or higher made up of 5 credits in reading and 5 credits in writing |
| Level 3 | 14 credits one approved subject |

How your rank score is calculated

All undergraduate applicants who meet the University Entrance Standard are given a rank score which is based on your best 18 credits at Level 3 or higher over a maximum of five approved subjects, weighted by the level of achievement attained in each set of credits. Your rank score will be calculated by awarding four points for each Excellence credit, three points for each Merit credit, and two points for each Achieved credit (see table on next page). You are encouraged to take Achievement Standards instead of Unit Standards to better prepare for University study.

For more information visit www.auckland.ac.nz/aelr

Table A

| Classical Studies | Accounting |
| English | Biology |
| Geography | Calculus |
| History | Chemistry |
| History of Art | Economics |
| Te Reo Māori | Mathematics* |
| Te Reo Rangatira | Physics |
| Te Reo Māori | Statistics |

Table B

| Unit Standards to better prepare for University study. |
| 10 Literacy credits level 2 or higher made up of University Entrance Literacy Standard in Te Reo Māori |
| 14 credits one approved subject |
| 14 credits second approved subject |
| 14 credits third approved subject |

*Cannot be used in combination with Calculus or Statistics.

For more information visit www.nzqa.govt.nz
What if I don’t get the guaranteed rank score needed for the programme I applied to?

If you don’t get the guaranteed rank score you could apply for a place under the University’s Undergraduate Targeted Admission Schemes (UTAS).

For more information see the UTAS table on pg. 10-13. To learn more about alternative pathways for Māori students see pg. 14.

Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) and International Baccalaureate (IB)

If you have gained either of these qualifications, you will have different entry requirements and should visit our website www.auckland.ac.nz/entry-requirements

What is a conjoint degree?

You can earn a conjoint degree by studying for two different degrees at the same time. When you complete the conjoint degree, you will have gained two qualifications faster than if you’d studied them individually.

A conjoint degree can give you a distinct advantage in the job market. It’s also the opportunity to mix two different areas of interest, so you don’t have to give up one for the other.

For example:

- A Bachelor of Engineering with a Bachelor of Laws.
- A Bachelor of Commerce with a Bachelor of Science.
- A Bachelor of Health Sciences with a Bachelor of Arts.

If you are applying for a conjoint programme you must meet the admission and selection requirement for both programmes of study. Higher rank scores will be required.

For more information visit www.conjoints.ac.nz
UTAS entry requirements 2018

The Undergraduate Targeted Admission Schemes (UTAS) Policy is designed to ensure that the University of Auckland provides equal educational opportunities to all eligible Māori students, Pacific students, students with disabilities, students from refugee and from low socio-economic backgrounds who have the potential to participate and succeed at our world-ranked University, and who have applied via the application process. UTAS is not available to international students.

UTAS groups include student groups that are under-represented and disadvantaged in gaining access to a university education and for whom participation in UTAS will assist in achieving equity outcomes. These groups include Māori, Pacific, students with disabilities, students from refugee and low socio-economic backgrounds who have a University Entrance (UE) qualification but have not met the general entry requirements for admission into the undergraduate programme of their choice. To be eligible for admission via UTAS Māori students, Pacific students, students with disabilities and students from refugee and low socio-economic backgrounds will be required to meet the eligibility criteria as set out below. Please see the UTAS website and faculty websites for more information or email the faculties via the email addresses provided. Queries or feedback on the UTAS Policy and Guidelines can be directed to equity@auckland.ac.nz. Enquiries about students with disabilities can be directed to Student Disability Services manager Brian Stanney: disability@auckland.ac.nz or phone +64 9 923 8808. The University of Auckland has taken all steps to ensure that the information on these pages is correct but please note that changes may occur. For the most up-to-date information call 0800 61 62 63 or visit www.auckland.ac.nz/utas.

We have various alternative pathways to bridge the gap between secondary school and the University of Auckland.

UniBound - Certificate in Academic Preparation

The UniBound programme to achieve the Certificate in Academic Preparation is a two-semester programme (Summer School and Semester One) for Māori and Pacific school leavers who believe they can benefit from a programme that introduces them to the University and its facilities. Students take five courses and on successful completion are eligible for entry into a Bachelor of Arts (BA) or Bachelor of Science (BSc) at the University of Auckland.

In 2018, UniBound students will receive transport cost assistance and free fees over the Summer School period of the programme. Students who successfully complete this course and go on to enrol in a degree programme at the University of Auckland will receive a completion award (valued at up to $5,000 as a fees remission or cash payment). Accommodation assistance may also be available.

Scholarships and financial assistance

The University of Auckland is pleased to offer more scholarships in 2017 than ever before. The University has a number of scholarships available for Māori and Pacific students. These are also private, government and international scholarships. See the table below for general scholarship opportunities and awards.

Scholarships and financial assistance

It is important to note that the initial basis of selection for the University’s school-leaver scholarships will be academic ability based on results at level 9 or higher in NCEA or an equivalent qualification. Therefore, you should aim for as many Merit and Excellence credits as possible in Year 12.

The Chancellor’s Awards for Top Māori and Pacific Scholars (CATS) have been replaced by the University of Auckland Māori Academic Excellence Scholarships and the University of Auckland Pacific Academic Excellence Scholarships. Applicants are assessed on a set of criteria, which recognise and reward exceptional academic performance combined with outstanding sporting, artistic, cultural and/or leadership achievements.

I came to the University of Auckland from Gisborne, a town that has about the same population as the number of students enrolled here.

What attracted me to the University wasn’t the ranking, the facilities or the scholarships. It was how I saw Māori students connect through Whaia Te Pae Tawhiti. This programme shows Year 13 Māori students from outside of Auckland all that the University has to offer. It was one of the best weeks of my life and gave me lifelong friendships. The University offers so much support to Māori students, including from staff in the Equity Office and Schools Partnership Office; members of Ngā Tauira Māori (Māori Student Association); UniBound, an academic preparation programme for Māori and Pacific school leavers; and the Tuākana programme, which provides academic and pastoral support. UniBound was particularly valuable in preparing me for University life and learning.

Before I came to Auckland my Aunty Glennis sat me down and told me that from this point on, I am carrying my father, as well as my kōrero - his father - and all of my tupuna, on my shoulders, making them proud. These words have stuck with me and I hold them close to my heart. They remind me that I am not just here to get a piece of paper with my name on it, but to make my whānau proud.

When you get to University, there’s a lot going on and much of it is new. We understand that starting University can be challenging, so we have a variety of support services to help you. These range from study spaces, mentors and scholarships to advisers and counsellors dedicated to helping our Māori students.

Libraries and Learning Services

Māori and Pacific Librarians

The Māori and Pacific Librarians are based on Level 1, Room 100-104 of the General Library. We have an open door policy and provide support services to the Māori and Pacific communities, as well as academic/professional staff and students who conduct Māori and/or Pacific research. Contact us if you have any questions about locating information, using library resources, referencing and more. The Māori and Pacific Librarians apply the principles of whānaungatanga, aroha, ta'aaloalo and alofa when responding to any information request received.

University Health and Counselling Service

University Health and Counselling Service (UHCS) offers a comprehensive service to ensure the health and wellbeing of students. The care team at UHCS is a skilled and experienced group of General Practitioners (GPs), nurses, counsellors and psychologists, all of whom are committed to providing quality health care services.

We offer a confidential counselling service offering a wide range of support. We have Māori and Pacific staff who offer a range of services within the spirit of whānaungatanga/fanau (such as aegrotat considerations, one-on-one counselling, support for assignment extensions and compassionate exam and test considerations).

We encourage students to register online at www.auckland.ac.nz/healthandcounselling or call our direct line at +64 9 923 7681 or walk in to our service and request an appointment. Nau mai haere mai.

It, but to make my whānau proud.
I am at the start of a long journey in Health Sciences. I have chosen to study Medicine because it provides for tauira Māori. It is a whānau-centred environment where Māori can succeed as Māori. I am excited by the opportunities to learn and grow under the support of the University’s Māori academic leaders and kaumātua.

He studies medicine and this bullyance—sensrelationship has benefited me both personally and academically. I am at the start of a long journeys in Health Sciences. This would have been a daunting experience without the support of the University’s Māori and Pacific Admission Scheme (MAPAS). Within this learning environment I have made awesome friends and am supported in my studies to achieve my best.

Going to University is a big decision. I hope you take the plunge! Believe in what you can achieve with the support of others. Kia kaha, kia maia, kia manawanui.

Mōku ake, ka tū Māori ai i tēnei āo, ka tū ai me tōku whānau.
Ko rātou ko ngā puna aroha me ngā puna tau tokoko. Nā reira, nā te whanaungatanga, i whakataua ai ahu ai ka hae kia te whare wānanga. Nā whakahaoko ake tōku hononga kia te whare wānanga ne. E whai ane a i ai ia te toho o te tākata o te rongoa. Nāna i whanga i a u ngā ako kara hoki ai i tēnei toho mātauranga.

As a tauira Māori, whānau is important. Whānau provides aroha and tau tokoko, and my whānau was critical in my decision to study at the University of Auckland. Through my brother I feel a strong sense of whanaungatanga with the University.

Career Development and Employment Services (CDES)
CDES has a designated Māori Career Development Consultant who is responsible for providing specialised services tailored to meet Māori students’ career development needs. These services support students so that they can successfully transition into work and life after they have completed their studies.

Te Korowai Atawhai
Te Korowai Atawhai provides a safe space that allows tauira (students) to explore their cultural identity and provide mandaktanga (support) to them in their academic endeavours. As a service, the focus is to aekir (nurture) tauira so that they are able to meet their potential in whatever pathway they choose to follow, from pre-enrolment through to graduation. Te Korowai Atawhai will also give tauira the opportunity to meet other Māori students and whānau studying at the Faculty of Education and Social Work.

It’s time to apply

So, you’ve made your decision on what you want to study, and now it’s time to apply. What do you need to do? It’s a two-step process to apply and enrol for your chosen programme.

First you need to apply

Go to www.apply.auckland.ac.nz and complete the Application for Admission. If you haven’t already, you’ll be asked to sign up for a new account. It’s easy, and you’ll soon be underway in making your application.

Next you will receive an acknowledgement email asking you to provide certified documents (and in some cases to complete other requirements)* before your application can be assessed.

Remember, you can apply for more than one programme. We’ll be assessing your application, and you can check your application status online at any time. Be patient though - documents can take 3-4 weeks to process during peak admission periods. Some of your documents might take longer to process than others, despite being sent in at the same time.

If your application is successful, we’ll email you an offer – normally from mid-January.

To accept or decline this offer, log onto www.apply.auckland.ac.nz.

Next you need to enrol

Once you’ve accepted an offer of place in a programme, you can enrol in a course. If you need some help with the enrolment process, visit www.auckland.ac.nz/enrolment for an online tutorial.

Next you need to enrol! For the most up to date information on admission, enrolment and programmes, call our student advisers on 0800 61 62 63 or visit www.studentservices.auckland.ac.nz.

Tell us what you think!

We welcome your feedback and comments on this prospectus. Email: j.mcleod@auckland.ac.nz
