

PROGRAMME
1130	JGS Director		George Perry
Chair – Janet Wilmshurst (TBC)
1140	Jenn Sheppard	PhD	Nesting ecology and habitat selection of female mallards in New Zealand
1155	Megan Friesen	PhD	Sensory ecology and conservation of seabirds
1210	Carolina Lara	PhD	Effectiveness of ecological corridors in maintaining bird movement and seed dispersal in urban areas
1225	Jamie Stavert	PhD	Functionally redundant pollinators show response diversity to land-use intensification
1240	Ellery McNaughton	PhD	Determining the effects of streetlights on urban wildlife
LUNCH (1300 – 1345)
Chair – Bree Powers
1345	Delayn Fritz	MSc	Interception, pre to post border
1400	Lloyd Stringer	PhD	The Allee effect in a world with few mates
1415	Robert Vennell	MSc	Rooting around in the bush: a damage function for wild pig disturbance
1430	Finnbar Lee	PhD	Agricultural land-use facilitates an invasive fish (Gambusia affinis)
1445	Markus Gronwald	PhD	Behaviour of invasive rat species in low population densities on islands
1500	Jian-Feng Liu	PhD	Biocontrol of invasive tomato potato psyllid Bactericera cockerelli : effects of predatory mite, entomopathogenic fungi, and ants
AFTERNOON TEA (1515 – 1535)
Chair – Margaret Stanley (TBC)
1535	Ivan Campos	PhD	Listening to nature: Recording the soundscape in Cerrado (Brazilian savanna) – Field work report and the next challenges
1550	Keely Paler	MSc	The responses of alpine beetles to climate change
1605	James Brock	PhD	A forest regeneration filter: does Cyathea dealbata influence native forest, and to what effect?
1630	Networking at Building 733 – Room 324 (Meeting Room)		