If you have missed the deadline for a programme of interest, please contact the relevant School or Programme Coordinator to establish if places are still available.

Faculty of Law

All undergraduate Bachelor of Laws (LLB) Part I applicants need to apply for and then enrol in two degrees (LLB and another undergraduate degree), either as conjoint or as double (concurrent) degrees, and choose their non-law courses as a foundation for the other undergraduate degree for which they have been admitted.

All LLB Part II applicants need to have passed both LLB Part I compulsory courses (with at least a C+) and at least 90 points of non-law university degree courses and apply not later than 1 December. University graduates may be exempted the 90 non-law points. Such applicants should contact the Faculty of Law for further information.

Applications for LLB Part II (only) who wish to be considered under the Moari, Indigenous Pacific Islands Residents or Disabled Applicants admission schemes must complete a separate questionnaire (available from the Law School office or website) and submit it not later than 5 December. Attendance at an interview may also be required in mid-December.

Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences

Supporting information form (MH03) is required for each of the following programmes:
- Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery
- Bachelor of Pharmacy

There is a supporting information form (MH04) required for all MAPAS applicants for all of the faculty’s undergraduate programmes. These supplementary information forms are available at www.mhabit.auckland.ac.nz/application

Many postgraduate programmes in the Faculty of Medical and Health Sciences require additional information to be provided as part of the application process. For further guidance and information contact phghahealth@auckland.ac.nz

Faculty of Education

Supplementary Information Forms, interviews and referee reports are required for most programmes. The Supplementary Information form and further information is available from www.education.auckland.ac.nz or by contacting the Education Student Centre, email: education@auckland.ac.nz or phone: 0800 61 62 63 (inside NZ) or +64 9 923 1969 (outside NZ)

Graduate School of Management

As part of the application process for the GSM programmes (Postgraduate Diploma in Business, Master of Business Administration and the Master of Management) you will be asked to submit a current CV, comments from two referees and a personal statement about your intention to study. You may also be asked to attend an interview. For further information visit www.gsm.auckland.ac.nz/apply
