Success Stories from PGCert Graduates

Teaching and Research Awards

Peter Bier, Engineering Science
2011 University of Auckland Early Career Teaching Excellence Award

Stephanie Budgett, Statistics
2012 Science FRDF award of $29,966 to investigate “Reasoning about uncertainty within a statistical inference context” [Jan 2013-Jan 2015]

Peng Cao, Chemical and Materials Engineering
2012 University of Auckland Early Career Research Excellence Award
2010 Faculty Research Development Fund (FRDF)

Susan Carter, Centre for Academic Development, Student Learning
2013 Appointment to Senior Lectureship in the Centre for Research and Learning in Higher Education
2011 Teaching Improvement Grant [TIG] - Flexible Doctoral Programme

Karen Day, Population Health
2011 - Ako Aotearoa award to examine the development of vocabulary and writing skills for disciplinary literacy for general education courses
2010 - Faculty Development Research Fund [FRDF] grant

Daniel Exeter, Population Health
2008 Emerging Researcher First Grant
2008 TIG - Providing customised feedback for students in very large classes
2007 TIG - Teaching large diverse classes

Jennifer Frost, History
2012 Promotion to Associate Professor
2011 University of Auckland Sustained Excellence in Teaching Award
2011 Faculty of Arts Sustained Excellence in Teaching

Dawn Garbett, Education
2013 Crombie Lockwood/Vero Liability School Trustee Study Award to investigate Board of Trustees’ procedures for appointing teaching staff at secondary and primary schools (awarded December 2012).

Kris Gledhill, Law
2012 – Inaugural Director of the New Zealand Centre for Human Rights Law, Policy and Practice, includes a project on research into pedagogy behind the teaching of human rights
2009 - FRDF grant to consider further the pedagogy of criminal law teaching

John Hamer, Computer Science
2010 Higher Education Association grant on Enabling Peer Assessment (£3,000)
2009 Ako Aotearoa Good Practice Publication Grant (with Paul Denny and Andrew Luxton-Reilly)
2008 Vice-Chancellor’s Strategic Development Fund grant on eLearning tools to support collaborative teaching & learning ($150,000)
2007 TIG – Enhancing Aropa
Success Stories from PGCert Graduates

Andrew Luxton-Reilly, Computer Science
2012 LEGS - Supporting interactive faded working examples (with Ewan Tempero and Paul Denny)
2011 TIG - Enhancing usability of tools that support student-generated content
2010 TIG - Improving tool support for student-generated content (with Paul Denny)
2010 TIG - Automated marker for programming assignments (with Mark Wilson and Michael Dineen)
2009 TIG - Development of an Online Peer Assessment and Learning Tool
2009 - Ako Aotearoa Good Practice Publication Grant (with John Hamer and Paul Denny)
2008 - Vice-Chancellor's Strategic Development Fund grant on eLearning tools to support collaborative teaching & learning (with John Hamer, Paul Denny, Beryl Plimmer and John Hosking)
2008 TIG - Providing customised feedback for students in very large classes
2006 TIG - Automated Assessment of Programming Assignments (with Mark Wilson and Michael Dineen)
2006 TIG - Using Process Recordings to Demonstrate Program Development Techniques
2005 TIG - Using Process Recordings to Demonstrate Program Development Techniques

Dermott McMeel, Creative Arts and Industries
2011 International Central Network Fund Award
http://www.creative.auckland.ac.nz/uoa/celebrate-success-archive

Nancy November, Music
2011 - Ako Aotearoa award to examine the development of vocabulary and writing skills for disciplinary literacy for general education courses
2010 Ako Aotearoa Good Practice Publication Grant
2010 Marsden Fast Start award
2009 NICAI Teaching Excellence Award
2007 TIG – Listening to History: A strategic intervention in undergraduate Music studies

Nickola Overall, Psychology
2009 University of Auckland Early Career Teaching Excellence Award

Darrell Patterson, Chemical and Materials Engineering
2009 University of Auckland Early Career Research Excellence Award
2009 TIG (with CAD collaborators) - Increasing laboratory learning and performance using multimedia laboratory manuals
2008 Faculty of Engineering Early Career Excellence in Teaching Award

Nicholas Rowe, Dance Studies
2012 Promotion to Associate Professor
2012 University of Auckland Early Career Research Excellence Award
2011 NICAI Early Career Teaching Excellence Award
2011 University of Auckland Early Career Teaching Excellence Award

Ashvin Thambyah, Chemical & Materials Engineering
2010 University of Auckland Early Career Research Excellence Award
2010 Faculty of Engineering Early Career Excellence in Teaching Award
Success Stories from PGCert Graduates

Publications that have resulted from PGCert projects

Success Stories from PGCert Graduates

http://dx.doi.org/10.1080/03075070903545058

http://dx.doi.org/10.1080/02602938.2010.531247

Garbett, D. (2013). Promotion via teaching: Developing resilience for a track less travelled. Studying Teacher Education

Garbett, D. (2013). Reassessing assignment work to leverage student teachers’ professional learning. ISATT 2013 conference in Ghent, Belgium (July 1-5, 2013)

November, Nancy and Day, Karen. ‘Engaging First Year University Students in the Discourse of their Discipline through Online Writing Projects’. Ako Aotearoa (2012):

Success Stories from PGCert Graduates

Success Stories from PGCert Graduates

