BA/BFA Conjoint Degree Planner

BA Component Degree Structure

- For the BA component of the conjoint degree you need to complete a minimum of 255 points (17 courses) from courses listed in the BA schedule – see The University of Auckland Calendar/Arts Undergraduate course finder for full listing.
- As all Arts courses (except DRAMA 204) are 15 points each in value, you will usually require a minimum of 255 points (17 courses) to complete the BA component of the conjoint degree.
- At least 150 points (10 courses) must be above Stage One (including at least 75 points (5 courses) at Stage Three).
- You must complete the requirements for either a single major or a double major.
- For a single major, you need to complete at least 135 points (9 courses) in your major, including at least 60 points (4 courses) at Stage Three.
- For a double major, you need to complete at least 120 points (8 courses) in each major, with at least 45 points (3 courses) at Stage Three in both subjects.
- There may also be further subject requirements and/or core courses required for your major(s) – check The University of Auckland Calendar/Arts Undergraduate course finder.
- There is no minor in a BA conjoint degree.

General Education and 15 points from any available University programme

- You must complete one General Education (GEN ED) course chosen from the Open Schedule or the Faculty Schedule available to either of your component degrees – see www.auckland.ac.nz/generaleducation for more information.
- As part of completing the requirements for General Education students must also pass the Academic Integrity course as specified in the Enrolment and Programme Regulations, Academic Integrity, of the University Calendar.
- You are also required to complete one more 15-point course from any available University programme, including General Education.
- It is not advised to take the General Education course in your first year of study.

Enrolment Pattern

- BA/BFA conjoint degree takes a minimum of five years to complete.
- You are recommended to enrol in not more than 135 points in the first year of BA/BFA (with no more than 60 points in the first semester of enrolment).
- In your first year, for the BFA component, you should enrol in FINEARTS 101 (30 points), FINEARTS 102 (30 points), FINEARTS 103 (15 Points) and FINEARTS 104 (15 points) and for the BA component, you should enrol in two to three BA courses (15 points each) with at least two courses in the same BA subject.
- In order to continue in a conjoint degrees combination a student needs to achieve a Grade Point Average (GPA) of at least 3.5 each year.
- To complete in a minimum of five years, BA/BFA students would usually enrol in 135 points each year. There is no requirement, however, to complete within the minimum time of five years, and students may enrol in a more manageable study load and extend the overall time frame.
- The University of Auckland Calendar defines fulltime study as enrolment in no less than 100 points in an academic year, or no less than 50 points in one semester, or no less than 25 points in Summer School.
- The University of Auckland Calendar states that the maximum number of points a student may enrol in over a single academic year is 170 points (students can enrol in up to 80 points in each of Semester One and Two, and up to 30 points in Summer School provided the overall limit is not exceeded).

The information included in this form is correct at the time of going to print, however no responsibility will be accepted for any errors, omissions or subsequent changes to timetabling or courses offered.
