essional Reflection – Date
essional Reflection – Date

DESCRIBE What happened? What did I do?
- succinctly describe what occurred ('verbal snapshot' — factual)
CONSIDER PERSPECTIVES Why did I act/respond in this way? How did this make me feel?
How were others affected?
- consider own values/assumptions informing your action/response (What were you thinking/feeling why?)
- consider others' perspectives (What may have been going through the minds of others involved in the situation?)
UNDERSTAND What do I now understand about myself as a teacher? What has informed my understanding?
- make links to literature, theory, and discussions with your associate teacher and other colleggues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
colleagues
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?
ACT What actions could I have taken? Why? What action/s will I take in future?						