

2018

JOINT

Royal Society Te Apārangi - The University of Auckland SPEAKER SERIES

Venue: Whangarei Central Library, 5 Rust Avenue, Whangarei | Start: 6pm

14 March

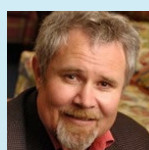

Professor Richard Bedford

President of the Royal Society

People and Place

11 April

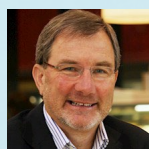

Professor Richie Poulton

Director Dunedin Multidisciplinary Study and Chief Science Advisor MSD

The science of wellbeing for children and young people

16 May

Professor Paul Spoonley

PVC Social Sciences, Massey University

Diversity and implications for the new NZ

20 June

Professor Tahu Kukutai

Director of National Institute of Demographic and Economic Analysis, University of Waikato

Census and Māori implications for our future

For more information visit: education.auckland.ac.nz

TAI TOKERAU
CAMPUS

In association with:

