

Knowledge and Education Research Unit (KERU) 7th Annual International Symposium

13 November 2017 | 9.30-3pm | N356, N block, Epsom Campus

Elizabeth Rata and Michael Young, 1st International Annual KERU Symposium, 2011

9.30am	Welcome	Elizabeth Rata
9.45 – 10.45 am	International Speaker Chair – Zulfa Sakhiyya	Chris Corbel (University of Melbourne)
10.45 – 11.00 am	Morning Tea
Morning Sessions (Chair: Graham McPhail)
11.00-11.30am	Making sense of school knowledge	John Morgan
11.30am- 12.00pm	Epistemic Progression – the challenge of systematic progression in a complex horizontally structured field	Barbara Ormond
12.00 – 12.30pm	'Their maths is not good enough' – a realist perspective on knowledge in electrical engineering	Bill Collis
12.30-1.00pm	Discussion
1.00 – 1.30pm	Lunch provided (rsvps required)
Afternoon sessions (Chair: John Morgan)
1.30 – 2.00pm	Curriculum integration at a new secondary school: some observations	Graham McPhail
2.00 – 2.30pm	The incongruity of identity in the New Zealand Primary School	Alexis Siteine
2.30 – 3.00pm	Discussion and Close	