INTRODUCTION

The Bachelor of Social Work (Honours)

The Bachelor of Social Work (Honours) provides a pathway to postgraduate study for successful students who qualify for and are motivated to pursue further research. Students are selected into the BSW (Hons) in their fourth year of study, on the basis of successful study in the Bachelor of Social Work. To be eligible to enter the BSW (Hons) students will have completed 360 points in required courses from the BSW schedule, with an average grade of B or higher in 60 points of specified courses above stage II (SOCWORK 312, SOCHLTH 313, SOCCHFAM 314 and SOCHLTH 334 or SOCCHFAM 332 or SOCYOUTH 333).

Students who are eligible to enter the BSW (Hons) will undertake a Supervised Field Placement (30 points), two compulsory courses (30 points), one elective in their major, plus a 45 point research project. BSW (Hons) students will still meet the requirements for a degree recognised by the Social Workers Registration Board, while benefitting from a year of postgraduate study and the opportunity to prepare for further research involvement. Achieving the BSW (Hons) will enable most graduates to commence masters by thesis. In some cases students with exceptional grades may be able to apply to enter doctoral study.

Please note: The courses in the BSW (Hons) are at postgraduate level and attract postgraduate fees.

Project

In recognition of the nature of the BSW (Hons) project, it will be vital that students entering the Honours year are able to commit to project preparation over the summer break prior to commencing the course.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Enrolments, withdrawals and course changes

You must enrol in a timely manner and there may be penalties for late enrolment or late course changes.

Students may withdraw from courses should their situation change, however this should not be done without discussion with the Academic Advisor or Head of Programme. Neither your academic advisor nor the programme leader can formally withdraw you from courses this is a task that you must do yourself.

Late deletions are usually only allowed for medical or serious personal reasons and you must go to the Student Health Centre to get the correct procedure followed.

Fees

The payment of fees is your responsibility. Fees remain a personal debt if they are unpaid and you have started the course. Failure to pay fees within the required time means that CECIL and library access will be removed and you may need to pay a penalty fee to be reinstated. You will not be able to graduate until all responsibilities have been met.

You must formally withdraw from courses within the first two weeks of the Semester to avoid debts. Students need to keep up to date at all times with the status of their enrolments. Deletions are stressful and impact on your study.

See the 2015 Calendar for detailed rules regarding enrolment and withdrawal.

Study space

Most study space is provided in the Library. Many more study places and computers are provided in the Information Commons on the City campus. You are encouraged to make use of these facilities, as regular study habits will prevent overloaded work commitments and stress. Students may request access to classrooms for study groups/seminar practices at times when classrooms are not scheduled. You must make a booking to guarantee access. Discuss your request with the School office.

Texts and resources

Many required texts are available through University Book Shop. It is possible to order these books online from www.ubsbooks.co.nz or Phone 09 306 2700 (test inquiries). There is a free courier service within the Auckland area and a cost of $6.00 freight for elsewhere in NZ. There is a 10% discount for University of Auckland students.

You will be provided with readings in several different ways. Basic readings are provided electronically free of charge. These will be provided to you mainly through Voyager or CECIL. Hard copy readings will be charged at cost recovery. Your individual course lecturer will inform you how you can access your readings. In addition some hard copies may be available on short term loan in the Library.

The School uses a range of assessment methods including: journals, photo projects, multi task assignments, reports, case studies, seminars, essays presentations, group projects and tests. The cost of materials required for the preparation of assignments will be the responsibility of students unless otherwise specified.

Accreditation

The Bachelor of Social Work (Hons) was approved by the Committee for University Academic Programmes under the provisions of the Education Act 1989. The Bachelor of Social Work (Hons) is recognised by the Social Workers Registration Board for purposes of registration. www.swrb.org.nz.

Student feedback

The Course Lecturer will provide an opportunity for written feedback from students at the end of each course. In addition all courses delivered at The University of Auckland are regularly reviewed in a centralized, anonymous student review process. The results of these processes are provided to programme administrators who are responsible for action on student concerns. The University has a Quality Management System which ensures that all courses and programmes are subject to monitoring and review.

General Education

The regulations of The University of Auckland require students enrolled in undergraduate degrees to complete 30 points (two courses) from the General Education Schedules. Students in the Bachelor of Social Work may take two courses from the schedules A, C, E, F, G, and H.

UNIVERSITY OF AUCKLAND POLICY

TEACHING and LEARNING REGULATIONS

Academic Integrity

All students admitted to an undergraduate or postgraduate degree, diploma or certificate are required to complete a compulsory, online Academic Integrity Course (please refer to the University of Auckland 2015 Calendar, pp 25-26). This online course, comprised of 5 modules, asks students to explore the concept of academic integrity. Students will learn how to demonstrate academic integrity in their study and research, improve their knowledge about University rules relating to academic conduct, and understand the consequences of academic misconduct. For more information visit this link: www.auckland.ac.nz/uoa/home/about/teaching-learning/academic-integrity

Academic Misconduct

The University has a statutory responsibility to encourage the development of intellectual independence in its students. It assesses the achievement of this goal through coursework and examinations. The University expects all students to complete coursework and examinations with integrity and honesty.

The University of Auckland will not tolerate cheating, or assisting others to cheat. It views cheating as a serious academic offence. To ensure that the standard of all University qualifications is maintained, students and staff have a responsibility to prevent, discourage and report cheating.

Allegations of academic misconduct at the Faculty of Education shall be dealt with by the following process:

The University of Auckland's full guidelines on procedures and penalties for academic dishonesty are detailed in the University's "Guidelines: Conduct of Coursework" available at www.auckland.ac.nz/honesty

Aegrotat and Compassionate Consideration

This is a University process that applies only to University Examinations (and Tests). Full details are in the University of Auckland Calendar Examination Regulation 12.

Appeal of Marks

A student who is concerned about a mark for an assessment can appeal in writing to the Course Director for a reconsideration of the mark stating the reasons why they consider the mark is inconsistent with the assessment criteria. The written appeal must be received within one week of the work being available for return. The course director reviews the mark in relation to the stated reasons or seeks a second opinion if they were the original marker. If the appeal is not upheld and the student is still concerned a written appeal, restating the nature of the concern in relation to the assessment criteria, needs to be made to the Head of School.

Conceded passes

Conceded passes can only be granted in undergraduate degrees consistent with the university regulations. For full details see the University of Auckland Calendar Examination Regulation 19

Course Deletions and Withdrawals

- A course deletion means that the course will be removed from your academic record and fees are fully refunded. There are specified timeframes within which course deletions can occur. Specific dates at which deletions can occur can be obtained via the following link:
www.calendar.auckland.ac.nz/regulations/academic/enrolment-and-programme.html
- Withdraw means that you are withdrawing from a course after the deadline for deletion and before the last day to withdraw. Withdrawn courses remain on your academic record with a withdrawn grade and all fees remain owing. A withdrawn grade counts as a fail for Grade Point Average (GPA) calculations. Specific dates at which withdrawals can occur can be obtained via the following link:
www.calendar.auckland.ac.nz/regulations/academic/enrolment-and-programme.html

DELNA (Diagnostic English Language Needs Assessment)

In professional programmes, it is important that students have well-developed English language skills to meet the graduating standards of their particular programme. As a consequence, all undergraduate students in the Faculty of Education (Bachelor of Education (Tchg); Bachelor of Physical Education; Bachelor of Human Services and Bachelor of Social Work), as well as the Graduate Diplomas of Teaching and Education Foundation students are required to complete the DELNA language requirements.

In the first instance students must complete the DELNA screening assessment. Those students who meet the minimum standard or above automatically meet the DELNA requirement and need do nothing more in relation to DELNA. If a student's screening indicates that diagnosis is required he/she must undertake the DELNA diagnosis. A pass or above at screening indicates the student has met the DELNA requirements. Where students fail to meet the minimum requirement he/she will be required to develop an individual plan. This is a mandatory requirement.

An individual plan will be developed on the basis of students' DELNA diagnostic results and identified areas of need. The individual plan is developed in conjunction with the Academic English Language Support person who assists students to seek the most appropriate support to meet their individual needs. The DELNA diagnosis and, if required, the individual plan must be completed within three months of the beginning of Semester One of the degree.

Students who have an individual plan will then need to work on developing their English language skills in both an independent and supported manner. Students are expected to work independently utilizing a range of on-line resources such as Grammar Smart, Writing for Academic Purposes, Reading for Academic Purposes and Pronunciation. Enrolment in relevant Student Learning Centre workshops will be useful also. Regular meetings with the DELNA Language Support person are necessary for success.

Student Email

All students enrolled at the university are provided with a student email account called Student Email. At the time of enrolment, students are provided with an email address. This address includes a student's NetID characters plus a generic address e.g. jbon007@aucklanduni.ac.nz. Students are able to access student email through the following link:
<http://www.education.auckland.ac.nz/en/admin/quick-links/ec-mail.html>

Student email is the main way in which the university communicates with students so it is vital that students access their email account on a regular basis. Failure to do means that students miss out on important information such as communications relating to coursework and academic progress, graduation, student financials and the library. Urgent and unexpected communications are also sent through this email e.g., what will happen if a natural disaster strikes the university/the city of Auckland?

Students can forward their university email to a private address if they wish to do so and this can be completed by signing into your account and providing the appropriate details.

Group assessment

There may be times when students are required to complete a group assessment task or team based project. Details of such tasks, including group work expectations will be published in course materials to ensure students are clear about what is being assessed and the allocation of marks to the various components of the assessment. Students should also refer to Module 2 of the Academic Integrity Course (Avoiding Academic Dishonesty) to clarify responsibilities when collaborating with peers. For more information visit this link: www.auckland.ac.nz/uoa/home/about/teaching-learning/academic-integrity

Partial Resits

Partial resits are not permitted. A student who has failed a course is required to complete all assessment requirements for the course in which they re-enrol.

Storage and Disposal of Student Work

Examination scripts will be retained in secure storage until at least six months after the examination and thereafter be destroyed. Thesis, dissertation or research portfolios will be retained until six months after the assessment has been completed.

Assignments will be retained in secure storage until five weeks into the start of the following semester and thereafter destroyed.

Student Services Online (SSO)

Student Services Online is The University of Auckland's comprehensive online system, which enables students to apply for admission to the university and once accepted into a programme, enrol in courses. Students can access SSO via the following link: www.studentservices.auckland.ac.nz/uoa SSO also provides students with access to a range of relevant academic information including:

- Course advice and information;
- Enrolment advice;
- Fees advice;
- Timetables, grades and course history advice;
- Graduation.

Course advice and information includes programme requirements and the course catalogue for your programme

Enrolment advice includes closing dates for enrolment into courses. Students can enrol in their required / selected courses and if necessary apply for a course concession. Changes to programmes can be made such as the deletion and addition of courses.

Fees advice

This link enables students to check their account details for fees, charges, payments, credits and refunds. Students can also create an account statement and invoice and make payments online using a credit card.

Timetables, grades and course history advice enable students to view their programme and examination timetables. Grades, course history and unofficial academic transcripts can also be viewed. A request for an official academic transcript can also be made.

Graduation

At the successful completion of a programme students must apply to graduate. This link also provides information pertaining to dates and times of graduation ceremonies as well as advice about academic regalia.

The SSO website is the place where students can update their personal details such as email address (if that is used to redirect university mail), contact address and phone number. It is vital that students ensure their personal details are current to enable effective communication.

Submission in Māori

Assignments and examinations in courses that do not use Te Reo as the medium of instruction, may be submitted in Māori provided the Course Director has been consulted within the first two weeks of the course and confirmed the availability of a suitably qualified person with linguistic and subject expertise to mark the work.

Third party assistance

While it is expected that at all levels of study students work independently producing work that is their own, there may be times when help is needed in regard to the improvement of written communication skills. The University of Auckland encourages students to improve their writing skills and permits students to seek assistance from third parties to do so. However, there are limits to the type and level of assistance that third parties can provide. The following link provides full details regarding the type of advice and support that third parties can offer:

www.auckland.ac.nz/uoa/home/about/teaching-learning/academic-integrity/tl-uni-regs-statutes-guidelines

Unsatisfactory Progress

In undergraduate programmes, students' academic standing is assessed each semester. To maintain the status of 'good' academic standing a student is required to pass at least 50% of points enrolled in any one semester. Failure to meet the 50% threshold will mean that a student's academic status in their next semester of study is amended and s/he will be reviewed. Continued failure to meet the criteria to attain 'good' academic standing will result in a student's status being revised to 'academic restriction' and finally 'enrolment terminated'.
