Congratulations on your acceptance into this Faculty of Education and Social Work programme, and welcome to your career in teaching. This programme induction has been organised as the first step in a career-long process of professional growth. The Induction Day is considered by the faculty to be the first official day of your programme of study and you are required to attend.

Today you will:

- be officially welcomed onto the campus;
- meet key faculty staff; and,
- attend workshops that will help you transition effectively into your programme of study.
