Students studying within the Faculty of Education and Social Work at Te Papa Ako o Tai Tonga, the University of Auckland’s South Auckland campus, benefit from the support services offered by both the faculty and central University. These services are here to make sure your time at the University is as enjoyable, inclusive and stress-free as possible.

Support services offered:
- Workshops in note taking and research techniques
- IT support
- Class-based
- Individual help
- Learning Hub services
- Study space in active学习
- Library services and assistance
- Health support advisor
- Academic English language support
- Support services between Maori and Pacific students
- Education and Social Work Student Association
- Financial hardship advice and help
- Counselling
- Challenging service
- Student health services
- Disability support
- Support for LGBTQITakatāpui+ students
- Educational, Social Work Student Association
- Workshops in note taking and research techniques

Useful web addresses:
- www.auckland.ac.nz/southauckland
- www.education.auckland.ac.nz/programmes
- www.auckland.ac.nz/entry-requirements
- www.auckland.ac.nz/fees
- www.education.auckland.ac.nz/scholarships-and-awards

You can also phone or email us with your questions:

Faculty of Education and Social Work Student Centre
Phone: 815 8883 (within Auckland)
0800 61 62 63 (outside Auckland)
+64 9 373 7513 (overseas)
Email: education@auckland.ac.nz

www.facebook.com/AklUniEducation
www.linkedin.com/showcase/edsw
www.instagram.com/edswuoa/

Disclaimer:
Although every reasonable effort is made to ensure accuracy, the information in this document is provided as a general guide only for students and is subject to alteration. All students enrolling at the University of Auckland must consult its official document, the current Calendar of the University of Auckland, to ensure that they are aware of and comply with all regulations, requirements and policies. Printed July 2021.

“Te Papa Ako o Tai Tonga is an excellent place to learn to teach.”

Nicholas Lyd
Student: Bachelor of Education (Teaching)
Welcome

Kia ora, Talofa Lava, Mālō e lelei, Fakafaka lahi aitu, Kia ora.

Welcome to the University of Auckland.

Today’s educators, social workers and leaders in sport, health and physical education are the future generation of young people through your work, engaging with us as you take the next step on that path. We are here to inspire you to do the same, with the information in this brochure helping you get there.

We provide an approachable education environment that best prepares you for your careers. Our graduates are now contributing to the social, cultural, physical and mental wellbeing of our communities. If you want to start your journey towards a career in education, teaching, social work or sport, health and physical education but it has been a while since you studied, then the information in this brochure will help you get to know you’re capable of getting). This one-year programme is an excellent starting point. As a student within the Faculty of Education and Social Work, you will have the benefit of studying with a world-ranked institution, alongside researchers and lecturers who are working in the field. By choosing to study teaching, you will learn alongside researchers and lecturers who are committed to improving the educational and social wellbeing of individuals and expanding your potential.

The University of Auckland is New Zealand’s highest-ranked university and the only university to feature in the top 10 globally for education as a subject. We are also ranked as the country’s top provider of employable, high-quality graduates and New Zealand’s leading university for employer reputation.*

*QS World University Rankings 2021

The best thing about studying at the South Auckland campus is the feeling of “at home” which you could feel at any of our campuses across Auckland. We understand that one of the largest barriers in post-10 education is that of your location and that that has kept us focused into the high education (60% for all) and other form of high education (20% for all). The programme includes an integrated approach to learning, teaching and researching in education.

The New Zealand Curriculum and the eight essential strands are the foundation of knowledge and understanding required to achieve the curriculum. The curriculum addresses the eight essential strands: Health, Physical Education and Physical Health, Learning and Language, Social and Cultural Development; and the eight essential strands: Health, Physical Education and Physical Health, Learning and Language, Social and Cultural Development. The programme has been designed to be accessible to students of all ages and abilities.

Students from the region and further afield have preferred to study in South Auckland. It provides a bridge into a number of University of Auckland degree programmes, and a foundation for students interested in teaching. Feasibility, social wellbeing of individuals and expanding your potential.

Ngā mirimiratanga Highlights

• Take your first step to studying at university level with the comfort of a world-ranked institution.
• Access a range of mentoring programmes, support groups and learning environments.
• Enter a profession that is high in demand in New Zealand and overseas.
• Explore a range of scholarships to support you, including TeachNZ Scholarships, worth up to $30,000.
• Spend 24 weeks on practicum in a range of schools, observing teaching and learning in the classroom.
• Develop your knowledge of the New Zealand Curriculum and the eight essential strands.
• Explore a range of mentoring programmes, support groups and learning environments.
• Become familiar with key topics you could be studying in a degree, including literacy, numeracy, managing finances and real-life problem solving.
• Gain the tools you need to prepare for the 21st century classroom, and enter a profession that is high in demand in New Zealand and overseas.

Quick facts:

Full-time: 1 year (full-time only)
Points per degree:
3 years full-time (Part-time options also available. Practical placements are full-time.)
Fees:
$1730 *
Location:
Auckland
Classes start:
Applications closing date:
Points:
Full-time: 1 point (for this one-year programme)
Scholarships, worth up to $30,000.

Bachelor of Education (Teaching) Primary specialisation

Inspire young people with a love of learning. As a primary teacher you will teach a wide range of subject areas and share your passion for learning across the curriculum, including specialised subjects like sport, music, art, science and culture.

* These studying the bachelor of teaching (education) would allow students to complete the bachelor of teaching (primary) specialisation in 3 years full-time or 5 years part-time. These students would complete the bachelor of teaching (primary) specialisation in 3 years full-time or 5 years part-time. These students would complete the bachelor of teaching (primary) specialisation in 3 years full-time or 5 years part-time.

Quick facts:

Fees: $1730 *
Location:
Auckland
Class: Bachelor of Education (Teaching) Primary specialisation

Tertiary Foundation Certificate Education and Social Work pathway

If you want to start your journey towards a career in education, teaching, social work or sport, health and physical education but it has been a while since you studied, then the information in this brochure will help you know you’re capable of getting). This one-year programme is an excellent starting point.

Ngā mirimiratanga Highlights

• Become familiar with key topics you could be studying in a degree, including literacy, numeracy, managing finances and real-life problem solving.
• Develop your knowledge of the New Zealand Curriculum and the eight essential strands.
• Explore a range of mentoring programmes, support groups and learning environments.
• Gain the tools you need to prepare for the 21st century classroom, and enter a profession that is high in demand in New Zealand and overseas.

Quick facts:

Full-time: 1 year (full-time only)
Points:
Location:
Auckland
Classes start:
Application closing date:
Fees:
$1730 *
Points:
Full-time: 1 point (for this one-year programme)

“The best thing about studying at the South Auckland campus is the feeling of “at home” which you could feel at any of our campuses across Auckland. We understand that one of the largest barriers in post-10 education is that of your location and that has kept us hooked into the hope education offers for all. The programme has been designed to be accessible to students of all ages and abilities. In total, 327 students have graduated from our primary teaching programme based in South Auckland, with many going on to teach in the local community, as well as the south Auckland region.

As a student, you will start to build valuable relationships with teachers and leaders at local primary schools from year one. Our close partnerships with local partners to meet the needs of students require a range of subject specialisations from all of our programmes.

Joining either the University of Auckland provides a range of career and personal development opportunities. You will work alongside researchers and lecturers who are working in the field. By choosing to study teaching, you will learn alongside researchers and lecturers who are committed to improving the educational and social wellbeing of individuals and expanding your potential.

The programme includes an integrated approach to learning, teaching and researching in education.