

Te Whakaterere au Pāpori (Navigating Social Currents) Research Unit and the School of Critical Studies in Education invite you to a seminar with Carol Mutch, Saville Kushner and John Morgan:

Brexit: Wake-ups, Shake-ups and Break-ups

29 June, 2016 | 12:30 pm -1:30 pm | N356, Epsom Campus

The exit of the United Kingdom from the European Union has dominated our news media since the referendum went in favour of the 'leave' vote last week.

Commentators have scrambled to make sense of the referendum results as shockwaves have resonated around the world.

Three senior academics from the Faculty of Education and Social Work will hold a panel discussion giving their perspectives on the events, the reasons and their consequences.

The discussion will then be opened up to the audience as we jointly examine what this means for the UK and the EU and how might it impact politics, finances, trade, alliances and other matters that are inextricably interwoven in our globalized world.