Introduction

The Bachelor of Social Work (Honours)

The Bachelor of Social Work (Honours) (BSW (Hons)) provides a pathway to postgraduate study for successful students who qualify for and are motivated to pursue further research. Students are selected into the BSW (Hons) in their fourth year of study, on the basis of successful study in the Bachelor of Social Work. To be eligible to enter the BSW (Hons) students will have completed 360 points in required courses from the BSW schedule, with an average grade of B or higher in 60 points of specified courses above stage II (SOCWORK 312, SOCHLTH 313, SOCHFAM 314 and SOCHLTH 334 or SOCHFAM 332 or SOCYOUTH 300).

Students who are eligible to enter the BSW (Hons) will undertake a Supervised Field Placement (30 points), two compulsory courses (30 points), one elective in their major, plus a 45 point research project. BSW (Hons) students will still meet the requirements for a degree recognised by the Social Workers Registration Board, while benefitting from a year of postgraduate study and the opportunity to prepare for further research involvement. Achieving the BSW (Hons) will enable most graduates to commence masters by thesis. In some cases students with exceptional grades may be able to apply to enter doctoral study.

Please note: The courses in the BSW (Hons) are at postgraduate level and attract postgraduate fees.

Project

In recognition of the nature of the BSW (Hons) project, it will be vital that students entering the Honours year are able to commit to project preparation over the summer break prior to commencing the course.

General Information

Enrolments, withdrawals and course changes
You must enrol in a timely manner and there may be penalties for late enrolment or late course changes.

Students may withdraw from courses should their situation change, however this should not be done without discussion with the Academic Advisor or Head of Programme. Neither your academic advisor nor the programme leader can formally withdraw you from courses this is a task that you must do yourself.

Late deletions are usually only allowed for medical or serious personal reasons and you must go to the Student Health Centre to get the correct procedure followed.

Fees
The payment of fees is your responsibility. Fees remain a personal debt if they are unpaid and you have started the course. Failure to pay fees within the required time means that Canvas and library access will be removed and you may need to pay a penalty fee to be reinstated. You will not be able to graduate until all responsibilities have been met.

You must formally withdraw from courses within the first two weeks of the Semester to avoid debts. Students need to keep up to date at all times with the status of their enrolments. Deletions are stressful and impact on your study.

See the 2018 Calendar for detailed rules regarding enrolment and withdrawal.

Study space
Most study space is provided in the Library. Many more study places and computers are provided in the Information Commons on the City campus. You are encouraged to make use of these facilities, as regular study habits will prevent overloaded work commitments and stress. Students may request access to classrooms for study groups/seminar practices at times when classrooms are not scheduled. You must make a booking to guarantee access. Discuss your request with the School office.

Texts and resources
Many required texts are available through University Book Shop. It is possible to order these books online from www.ubsbooks.co.nz or www.ubiq.co.nz or Phone 09 306 2700 (Option 1). Delivery costs (courier within NZ) are added to the price at the time of checkout, or books may be collected from any of the UBS stores.

You will be provided with readings in several different ways. Basic readings are provided electronically free of charge. These will be provided to you through Canvas. Hard copy readings will be charged at cost recovery. Your individual course lecturer will inform you how you can access your readings. In addition some hard copies may be available on short term loan in the Library.

The School uses a range of assessment methods including: journals, photo projects, multi task assignments, reports, case studies, seminars, essays presentations, group projects and tests. The cost of materials required for the preparation of assignments will be the responsibility of students unless otherwise specified.

Accreditation
The Bachelor of Social Work (Honours) was approved by the Committee for University Academic Programmes under the provisions of the Education Act 1989. The Bachelor of Social Work (Honours) is recognised by the Social Workers Registration Board for purposes of registration. www.swrb.org.nz.

Student feedback
The Course Lecturer will provide an opportunity for written feedback from students at the end of each course. In addition all courses delivered at the University of Auckland are regularly reviewed in a centralized, anonymous student review process. The results of these processes are provided to programme administrators who are responsible for action on student concerns. The University has a Quality Management System which ensures that all courses and programmes are subject to monitoring and review.
Summer School
A limited range of General Education courses are available in Summer School. Check the General Education schedule for the BSW.

Please note carefully the location and the time of the course you choose as it may be taught on the City or Tamaki campus.

Working with all people
The Social Work programmes at the University acknowledge the bicultural commitments and responsibilities of all students. Graduates of our social work programme must also be able to demonstrate competence in working with all people. As such, all students will be required to work in groups, pairs, and on placement with people of all genders, ethnicities, ages, or sexual orientations, religious or other beliefs.

Assignment Process

CANVAS:
A large number of assignments are submitted either electronically, or via canvas, or in person.

Paper based and other non-electronic submissions will continue to be collected at the designated on-campus locations. These should be submitted with the coversheet that will be available via the Cover Sheet link located in the left hand navigation bar in your Canvas course site. The coversheets will be individualised with a QR code that will be scanned on receipt.

All non-electronic assignments are handed in at the campus where you attend the course (unless your lecturer advises otherwise).

Please see below for details of drop off locations and their opening hours:

Assignment Submission

Non-electronic submission of Assignments
Faculty students across all campuses will generate their own individual coversheets for each assignment. Every coversheet will contain a unique barcode to facilitate prompt processing and automated emails to confirm receipt and advise when an assignment is ready to be picked up.

Find the answers to common questions about preparing and handing in your assignments where it has been indicated the submission is to be on paper. If you still have questions please contact foedassignments@auckland.ac.nz.

Electronic Submission of Assignments
All electronic submission of assignments must be uploaded to an assignment dropbox on Canvas, Moodle, or Turnitin as assigned by your lecturer. You will be notified at the beginning of your course that the submission of assignments is electronic. You will also be notified about how you will receive your marked assignment back. Usually online submission means your marked script will be made available to you online. Information will be provided as to how to upload your assignment and how to access your marked script online from the Course Director. No coversheet is required for electronic submission. The submission times of 12:30 pm for undergraduate and 4:30 pm for postgraduate level 7 coursework apply to submission of online assignments.

Find information about coversheets, forms and course information and assignments frequently asked questions via link: www.education.auckland.ac.nz/en/for/current-students/assignments

Extensions

Requests for extensions must be made to the Course Director (or nominee where applicable) in advance of the due date. Applications must be accompanied by evidence of the need for an extension. Extensions will not be granted for academic workload reasons (for example, a number of assignments due at the same time) but may be considered in the case of temporary illness or injury, or for compassionate reasons. Extensions are granted at the discretion of the Course Director (or nominee where applicable). For further information see www.education.auckland.ac.nz/en/for/current-students/assignments

Assessment and Grading Scale

Assessment comprises examinations and coursework. Examinations are run centrally. Programme coursework refers to all other assessments (assignments, seminars, practicum, tests etc.):

1. In courses that involve coursework and examinations students must complete both components to the satisfaction of the examiners.
2. In courses that only include coursework students must complete to the satisfaction of the examiners such oral, practical, written or other tests and assignments as have been prescribed for the completion of the course.
3. In any course, students must complete all assignments.
4. In any course that has a practicum component, a student must pass all components in order to have passed that course as a whole.
5. Course results are reported as grades. There are ten pass grades and three fail grades.

Graduate Profile

The University of Auckland seeks to graduate competent and ethical beginning social work practitioners who are passionate and compassionate in their contribution to social work’s goals and whose practice is research-informed and actively committed to Te Tiriti o Waitangi and to bicultural and multicultural social work. Their professional commitment towards change at all levels will contribute to the debates and shaping of policies and practice that will make a positive difference in the lives of service users and communities. Graduates of this programme will be prepared for a professional career in social work and will meet the criteria for registration under the Social Workers Registration Act (2003).

This will be achieved through demonstration of the following:

1. Knowledge of the context and centrality of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and the skills to competently practice in bi-cultural and multi-cultural environments.
   - Articulation of their own cultural and social identity in Aotearoa New Zealand.
   - Sound knowledge of practices that promote the self-determination, participation and success of Maori whanau, hapu, and iwi.
   - Sound knowledge of practices that promote the needs and aspirations of Pasifika and other ethnic individuals, families, groups and communities.

2. Social work values, knowledge and skills that reflect an anti-oppressive stance and commitment to personal and social change.
   - Demonstration of an understanding of diversity and complexity in the lives of service users and in practice situations.
   - The skills and dispositions that make effective relationships and use strategies to maximise participation and self-determination in engagement with service users.
   - An understanding of the development, role and contribution of social work within local, national, regional and global social and political contexts.
   - A sound understanding of social policy and its formulation in Aotearoa New Zealand society including the centrality of Te Tiriti o Waitangi in social service development and provision.
   - A commitment to informed, positive and sustainable social change that seeks to integrate service user and community aspirations.
   - A beginning capability to undertake research and apply research-informed knowledge to practice issues.

3. Effective use of critical thinking, reflection and reflexive skills in practice.
   - Evidence of critical thinking, a commitment to enquiry and the effective analysis and synthesis of information, service user perspectives, disciplinary knowledge and research.
   - The ability to effectively evaluate evidence and the skills for designing and implementing strategies for intervention with individuals, families, groups and communities.
   - Evidence of consistent critical reflection on their practice, an understanding of professional supervision and accountabilities, and a commitment to self-evaluation of their learning needs and continuing professional development.

4. Ethics, values and skills that are relational, professional and competent.
   - A clear ethical stance in interactions with service users, whanau, colleagues and the community in accordance with Aotearoa New Zealand Codes of Ethics, the Social Workers Registration Board Code of Conduct and other relevant codes of ethics and codes of practice.
   - Competence in social work assessment and intervention skills.
   - Professional practice that demonstrates the ability to work autonomously and collaboratively in organisational, community and multi-disciplinary contexts.
   - A commitment to collaborative professional relationships with colleagues and other professionals.
   - An active engagement with personal and systemic resilience, problem solving and conflict resolution with colleagues and other professional and practice relationships.
   - Evidence of effective professional literacy, numeracy, communication and information technology skills as evidenced in oral and written reports and assessments.
   - Evidence of effective time management and organisational skills.
Academic Integrity

All students admitted to an undergraduate or postgraduate degree, diploma or certificate are required to complete a compulsory, online Academic Integrity Course (see University of Auckland 2018 Calendar, pp 27. This online course, comprised of 5 modules, asks students to explore the concept of academic integrity. Students will learn how to demonstrate academic integrity in their study and research, improve their knowledge about University rules relating to academic conduct, and understand the consequences of academic misconduct. For more information visit this link: www.auckland.ac.nz/academic_honesty

Academic Misconduct

The University has a statutory responsibility to encourage the development of intellectual independence in its students. It assesses the achievement of this goal through coursework and examinations. The University expects all students to complete coursework and examinations with integrity and honesty.

The University of Auckland will not tolerate cheating, or assisting others to cheat. It views cheating as a serious academic offence. To ensure that the standard of all University qualifications is maintained, students and staff have a responsibility to prevent, discourage and report cheating.

Allegations of academic misconduct at the Faculty of Education and Social Work shall be dealt with by the following process:

!Diagram
The University of Auckland’s full guidelines on procedures and penalties for academic dishonesty are detailed in the University’s “Guidelines: Conduct of Coursework” available at www.auckland.ac.nz/academic_honesty.

Academic English Language Requirement

The University has an Academic English Language Requirement (AELR) for all its bachelor degree programmes. The aim of the AELR is to ensure you have a sufficient level of competence in academic English to support your study at University. Those that have not met the AELR through their entrance qualification will be advised at the time of enrolment. The AELR may be met through your entry qualification or through satisfactory completion of an approved course in your first 12 months of study. For more information, see www.auckland.ac.nz/aelr.

Aegrotat and Compassionate Consideration

This is a University process that applies only to University Examinations (and Tests). Full details are in the University of Auckland Calendar Exam Regulation 13.
Appeal of Course Marks or Grades

A student who is concerned about a mark or grade for an assessment can appeal in writing to the Course Director for a reconsideration of the mark or grade stating the reason why they consider the mark or grade is inconsistent with the assessment criteria. The written appeal must be received within one week of the work being available for return or grade being notified. The Course Director reviews the mark or grade in relation to the stated reasons or seeks a second opinion if they were the original marker or assessor. If the appeal is not upheld and the student is still concerned a written appeal, restating the nature of the concern in relation to the assessment criteria, needs to be made to the Academic Head.

Availability of Examination Scripts

By making application during the three months after the end of the examination period for the examination, a candidate may obtain a copy of their examination script. For full details see the University of Auckland Calendar Examination Regulation 23.

Conceded passes

Conceded passes can only be granted in undergraduate degrees consistent with university regulations. For full details see the University of Auckland Calendar Examination Regulation 20.

Course Deletions and Withdrawals

- A course deletion means that the course will be removed from your academic record and fees are fully refunded. There are specified timeframes within which course deletions can occur. Specific dates at which deletions can occur can be obtained via the following link: www.calendar.auckland.ac.nz/en/genregs/enrolment-and-programme.html
- Withdraw means that you are withdrawing from a course after the deadline for deletion and before the last day to withdraw. Withdrawn courses remain on your academic record with a withdrawn grade and all fees remain owing. A withdrawn grade counts as a fail for Grade Point Average (GPA) calculations. Specific dates at which withdrawals can occur can be obtained via the following link: www.calendar.auckland.ac.nz/en/genregs/enrolment-and-programme.html.

DELNA (Diagnostic English Language Needs Assessment)

In professional programmes, it is important that students have well-developed academic English language skills to meet the graduating standards of their particular programme. As a consequence, all undergraduate students in the Faculty of Education and Social Work (Bachelor of Education (Teaching); Bachelor of Physical Education; Bachelor of Human Services, Bachelor of Social Work and Bachelor of Sport, Health and Physical Education), as well as the Graduate Diplomas in Teaching, and Education Foundation students have to complete the DELNA language requirements.

Students enrolled in the BEd(Tchg) Primary, BSportHPE and BSW programmes will be required to pass EDUCSW 199 before they will be able to enrol in the specified course in their 3rd year of their programme.

In the first instance students must complete the DELNA Screening assessment. Those students who achieve the required standard automatically meet the DELNA requirement and need do nothing more in relation to DELNA.

If a student’s screening indicates that diagnosis is required he/she must undertake the DELNA Diagnosis. Following the Diagnosis, students need to meet with a DELNA adviser to go over their DELNA profile. Students who have been identified as needing academic language support will be required to work through an individual plan. This is mandatory.

An individual plan will be developed by a DELNA adviser on the basis of students’ DELNA diagnostic results and identified areas of need. The individual plan links to online modules that students complete in Canvas.

The DELNA diagnosis and follow up appointment with an adviser to access an individual plan if required, must be completed within three months of the beginning of Semester One of the degree.

Students who receive the lowest band scores in the DELNA Diagnosis will be required to complete another assessment once they have accessed support. This is called a Post DELNA assessment.
Students who have a diagnosed Learning Disability and have had special conditions approved, can make an appointment with Student Disability Services to access accommodations.

Regular meetings with the DELNA Academic Language advisers are necessary for success.

Group assessment
There may be times when students are required to complete a group assessment task or team based project. Details of such tasks, including group work expectations will be published in course materials to ensure students are clear about what is being assessed and the allocation of marks to the various components of the assessment. Students should also refer to Module 2 of the Academic Integrity Course (Avoiding Academic Dishonesty) to clarify responsibilities when collaborating with peers. For more information visit this link: www.auckland.ac.nz/academic_honesty

Partial Resits
Partial resits are not permitted. A student who has failed a course is required to complete all assessment requirements for the course in which they re-enrol.

Student email
All students enrolled at the university are provided with an email account called student email. At the time of enrolment, students are provided with an email address. This address includes a student’s username characters plus a generic address, e.g., jbon007@aucklanduni.ac.nz. Students are able to access student email through the following link: http://mail.aucklanduni.ac.nz.

Student email is the main way in which the university communicates with students so it is vital that students access their email account on a regular basis. Failure to do means that students miss out on important information such as communications relating to coursework and academic progress, examinations, graduation, student financials and the library. Urgent and unexpected communications are also sent through this email, e.g., what will happen if a natural disaster strikes the university / the city of Auckland.

Students can forward their university email to a private address if they wish to do so and this can be completed by signing into your account and providing the appropriate details.

Storage and Disposal of Student Work
Examination scripts will be retained in secure storage for only four months following the examination period and thereafter be destroyed (Examination Regulation 23). Thesis, dissertation or research portfolios will be retained until six months after the assessment has been completed.

Assignments will be retained in secure storage until five weeks into the start of the following semester and thereafter destroyed.

Student Services Online (SSO)
Student Services Online is the University of Auckland’s comprehensive online system, which enables students to apply for admission to the university and once accepted into a programmed, enrol in courses. Students can access SSO via the following link: www.studentservices.auckland.ac.nz

SSO also provides students with access to a range of relevant academic information including:
- Course advice and information;
- Enrolment advice;
- Fees advice;
- Timetables, grades and course history advice;
- Graduation.

Course advice and information includes programme requirements and the course catalogue for your programme

Enrolment advice includes closing dates for enrolment into courses. Students can enrol in their required / selected courses and, if necessary, apply for a course concession. Changes to programmes can be made such as the deletion and addition of courses.
Fees advice
This link enables students to check their account details for fees, charges, payments, credits and refunds. Students can also create an account statement and invoice and make payments online using a credit card.

Timetables, grades and course history advice enable students to view their programme and examination timetables. Grades, course history and unofficial academic transcripts can also be viewed. A request for an official academic transcript can also be made.

Graduation
At the successful completion of a programme students must apply to graduate. This link also provides information pertaining to dates and times of graduation ceremonies as well as advice about academic regalia.

The SSO website is the place where students can update their personal details such as their email address (if that is used to redirect university mail), contact address and phone number. It is vital that students ensure that their personal details are current to enable effective communication.

Submission in Māori
Assignments and examinations in courses that do not use Te Reo as the medium of instruction may be submitted in Māori provided the Course Director has been consulted within the first two weeks of the course and confirmed the availability of a suitably qualified person with linguistic and subject expertise to mark the work.

Third party assistance
While it is expected that at all levels of study students work independently producing work that is their own, there may be times when help is needed in regard to the improvement of written communication skills. The University of Auckland encourages students to improve their writing skills and permits students to seek assistance from third parties to do so. However, there are limits to the type and level of assistance that third parties can provide. The following link provides full details regarding the type of advice and support that third parties can offer

Unsatisfactory Progress
In undergraduate programmes, students’ academic standing is assessed each semester. To maintain the status of ‘good’ academic standing a student is required to pass at least 50% of points enrolled in any one semester. Failure to meet the 50% threshold will mean that a student’s academic status in their next semester of study is amended and s/he will be reviewed. Continued failure to meet the criteria to attain ‘good’ academic standing will result in a student’s status being revised to ‘academic restriction’ and finally ‘enrolment terminated’.

Vulnerable Children’s Act
Every student applying for admission or admitted to an Initial Teacher Education programme or Bachelor of Social Work, Postgraduate Diploma in Counselling Theory, Master of Counselling and Master of Social Work Professional programme will be subject to safety checks under the Vulnerable Children Act 2014. A safety check includes (but is not limited to) a New Zealand Police vet and an assessment of the risk, if any, that the student would pose to the safety of children if employed or engaged as a children’s worker. If a student enrolled in an Initial Teacher Education, Counselling or Social Work programme is found to have been convicted of a specified offence (as listed in Schedule 2 of the Vulnerable Children Act) or otherwise assessed to pose an undue risk to the safety of children, they may not be permitted to perform the required practical work and so be unable to complete the programme. Please refer to the legislation here for more information.

If you have concerns about past convictions for specified offences or whether you could be assessed to pose an undue risk to the safety of children, you should notify us by emailing esc.manager@auckland.ac.nz. You should note that the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004 does not apply to Police vets conducted to perform safety checks of core children’s workers under the Vulnerable Children Act 2014, even if it would normally permit that person to conceal their criminal convictions.

SOCYOUTH 733
Youth Justice Issues and Strategies
A critical examination of contemporary literature, research and evidence informed strategies in youth offending and recidivist behaviours, with an emphasis on the skills necessary for working successfully with this client group.

Goals of the programme
The overall goal of the Bachelor of Social Work programme is to contribute to improved social work practice with diverse service users by graduating thoughtful, ethical and skilled practitioners who will contribute to the profession as well-prepared practitioner researchers. It also aims to provide a strong base for graduates who wish to continue studying social work at post-graduate level. The Honours programme extends these opportunities for those students who have demonstrated suitability for higher study.
