THE UNIVERSITY OF AUCKLAND FOUNDATION PATHWAY

The University of Auckland is delighted to announce its seamless pathway programme aimed at helping students move successfully from English language through Foundation and into degree-level studies at the University.

WHAT IS THE PATHWAY?

The pathway has three components:

1. An intensive English-language programme at the University's English Language Academy.
2. A University foundation year, to complete the University of Auckland's Certificate in Foundation Studies taught by ACG New Zealand International College.
3. A University of Auckland undergraduate degree.

WHO IS THE PATHWAY FOR?

This pathway offers opportunities for undergraduate entry at The University of Auckland for students who do not as yet meet the University's academic or English language admission requirements.

THE BENEFITS FOR STUDENTS

- A clearly articulated pathway into the University of Auckland, New Zealand's top-ranked university
- Quality –assured programmes at pre-degree and degree level
- Ongoing support and academic advice at every step of the way
- Access to the University of Auckland's i-SPACE students activity centre

THE BENEFITS FOR AGENTS

- Students will be issued with letters of offer or conditional offer for all three components of the pathway programme at the point of entry. This will make it easier for you to complete arrangements for your students, such as applying for visas etc.
- Commission will be payable on each component of the pathway, giving you the potential to receive three payments if students do English, Foundation and degree studies. Commission payments will only be made to the agent that first submitted the application.
