Health Psychology Seminar Series
Semester Two 2016

Tuesday 19th July 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Adherence to endocrine therapy in breast cancer
Professor Annette Stanton, Department of Psychology, UCLA

Tuesday 26th July 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Understanding Advance Care Planning (ACP) and how patients experience the ACP process
Sorrel Renton-Green, ACP facilitator, Counties Manukau Health
Marie Young, Health Psychologist, Cancer Support: Psychology & Social Work, Counties Manukau Health

Tuesday 2nd August, 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Organ donation – self versus proxy decisions, emotions, the recipient, and donation attitude
Alysha Simonsen, Intern Health Psychologist, Department of Psychological Medicine, University of Auckland

The effects of disgust and health anxiety on smoking behaviour
Amy Jackson, Intern Health Psychologist, Department of Psychological Medicine, University of Auckland

Tuesday 9th August, 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Meeting for Health Psychology students and faculty to discuss 2017 MHlthPsyc thesis supervision

Tuesday 16th August 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Kindness Matters: A self-compassion RCT among Diabetes Patients improves depression, distress and Hba1c
Anna Friis, Ph.D. candidate, Department of Psychological Medicine, University of Auckland
Fake it ‘til you make it: Can the ability to express emotions predict outcomes?
Natalie Tuck, Ph.D. candidate, Department of Psychological Medicine, University of Auckland

Tuesday 23rd August, 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Insomnia: Is current knowledge too all-inclusive for the chronic-pain population?
Julia Woolford, Intern Health Psychologist, Department of Psychological Medicine, The University of Auckland
What gets in the way of Faster Cancer Treatment? Factors that cause patients to delay or decline treatment?
Dr. Lisa Reynolds, Department of Psychological Medicine, University of Auckland

Tuesday 13th September 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Are Sexual Functions Genetically Determined?
Dr. Andrea Burri, Health and Rehabilitation Research Institute, Auckland University of Technology; Waitemata Pain Service, Department of Anaesthesia and Perioperative Medicine, North Shore Hospital

Tuesday 20th September 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
A day in the life of a Health Psychologist working in Intensive Care
Hamish McIntosh, Health Psychologist, Counties Manukau Health
The experience of patients accessing their clinical records
Vanessa Garcia-Hoyos, Health Psychologist, Counties Manukau Health

Tuesday 27th September 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Food policy and food pricing: the influence of our food environment on dietary behavior
Dr. Wilma Waterlander, National Institute for Health Innovation (NIHI), University of Auckland
Using text messaging to extend diabetes self-management support outside the clinic environment
Rosie Dobson, Health Psychologist, Research Fellow, NIHI, University of Auckland

Tuesday 4th October 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Where to from here Doctor? Post-treatment care following cancer
Alexandra Leggatt, Health Psychologist, Cancer Society, Auckland Division

Tuesday 11th October 12.00-1.00pm, Auckland Clinical School 12.080
Great expectations
Professor Keith Petrie, Department of Psychological Medicine, University of Auckland

Series coordinator: Dr. Lisa Reynolds l.reynolds@auckland.ac.nz