

What is the Cook Islands STEPS Survey about?

1. Read the story about the STEPS Survey from the student book.
2. Read the QUESTIONS.
3. Watch the video about this study and re-read the story.
4. NOW you should be ready to answer the questions!

Population Studies: How do scientists around the world learn about health and wellbeing?

The Cook Islands Non-Communicable Disease Risk Factors Survey (STEPS)

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Who are the people that the survey is about? | |
| 2. What is the name of one of the researchers working on the study? | |
| 3. How many people took part in the survey? | |
| 4. What age were the people who took part in the survey? | |
| 5. What is one thing about the people that was measured? | |
| 6. What is one question that the researchers asked the people? | |
| 7. What is one other question you would ask if you were on the research team? | |