

What is the Cook Islands School Health Survey about?

1. Read the story about the School Health Survey from the student book.
2. Read the QUESTIONS.
3. Watch the video about this study and re-read the story.
4. NOW you should be ready to answer the questions!

Population Studies: How do scientists around the world learn about health and wellbeing?*The Cook Islands School Health Survey

1. Who are the people that the survey is about?
2. What is the name of one of the researchers working on the survey?
3. Where does the survey happen?
4. What age are the people who take part in the survey?
5. How often does the survey take place?
6. What is one thing about the people that was measured?
7. If you were on the research team, what would you like to ADD to the survey and why?	