

Maori and Pasifika Postgraduate Support Linkages

Interconnection Opportunities

MAI ki Tamaki Makarau

The Maori and Indigenous (MAI) Programme is for the enhancement of Maori and Indigenous post-graduate students throughout Aotearoa New Zealand. This national network of key sites forms an integral part of Te Pae Whakatairanga Hiranga, the Capability Building programme of Nga Pae o te Maramatanga.

The MAI Ki Tāmaki programme is being hosted by Te Puna Wānanga, School of Māori Education, Faculty of Education. Lead by Dr Jenny Lee, Dr Mera Penehira and Dr Jen Martin the MAI Ki Tāmaki programme is a network for all Māori and Indigenous Doctoral candidates in Auckland. It also seeks to support Postgraduate students transition to a Doctoral Programme.

Contact Information

Jen Martin: j.martin@auckland.ac.nz

Website Link: <http://www.mai.ac.nz/mai/mai-ki-t-maki-makaurau>

Online Registration Form: <http://www.mai.ac.nz/user/register>

Te Wheke Postgraduate Programme

A programme that offers Maori and Pacific Postgraduate students (Honours/Masters/PhD) from all faculties services, development opportunities, and events to enhance their academic success. Te Wheke Postgraduate Programme is a student-centred model based on feedback, facilitated by Te Fale Pouāwhina in collaboration with Equity, Tuakana, Faculties, and Libraries and Learning Services.

Contact Information:

Abigail McClutchie: a.mcclutchie@auckland.ac.nz

Phone: 09 923 7896 Ext. 87896

Hui Fonotaga

The Equity Office – Te Ara Tautika hosts regular hui-fonotaga for postgraduate Māori and Pacific students across the faculties. These events are an opportunity to hear from other students and academics about their research journeys, strengthen your networks across the University, and find out more about funding opportunities such as the Tuākana Contestable Fund.

For more information or to subscribe to the mailing list please contact:

Sili Mireta Pita (student equity advisor): s.pita@auckland.ac.nz

Website Link: <https://www.auckland.ac.nz/en/on-campus/student-support/personal-support/academic-learning-support/tuakana/tuakana-postgraduate-students.html>

He Paiaka Tipu

He Paiaka Tipu is a national network of Māori postgraduate psychology students (Masters and doctoral level) who are engaged in a research/academic or applied career pathway.

There is a workshop stream organised at every New Zealand Psychological Society conference, and there are plans to initiate a facebook page.

Contact Jade for further information j.legrice@auckland.ac.nz

Te Waka Rangahau

Massey University hosts an annual 1-day symposium at their Albany campus, to network and share ideas with postgraduate students and staff of The University of Auckland and Waikato University

Contact Shiloh for further information s.groot@auckland.ac.nz